« SACRÉS FRANÇAIS » Argues that France’s proud image of itself as a land of liberty and heroism is mostly a myth. The book challenges this idealized history, showing how the French often ignore the less flattering parts of their past. Reading this book together will offer a surprising number of benefits that enhance the experience of reading in the French Language . Reading a book together transforms a solitary activity into a rich, interactive, and often more rewarding experiences that benefits comprehension, social skills, enjoyment and cognitive development.
