

Job title: Youth Worker (Part-time, sessional)

Responsible to: Head of Youth Work and Education

Contract: Permanent

Pay: £12.75 per hour

Hours of work: Part-time, 6 hours per week, term-time only, 39 weeks per year

Job purpose: To support the delivery of several youth work and education projects

Main location: The Mix building – Stowmarket

Who are we?

We see a future in which young people are change makers, with clear confident voices that are heard. A future in which any young person from any background can grow and flourish to become their best selves. In that future they exercise both their rights and responsibilities and invest their lives in building strong communities. We walk together with young people as trusted partners who support, guide, inspire and empower them with that future in mind. We are The Mix.

The charity includes 127 Trading Limited, a wholly owned subsidiary set up and operated to generate additional income for The Mix.

About the project:

1. The Open Access Project is our version of a youth club. Young people can drop in on weekday evenings, every week during term-time at our building in Stowmarket, as well as The Mix Hut in Needham Market. Drop-ins are free, and provide a safe space for young people, from Year 7 – Year 12, to make new friends, be creative, become a Young Leader, or just relax. There is also a Home Education drop in which runs weekly too. Our team of youth workers are also trained to support young people with any challenges they may be facing.

Although these will be the main projects the Youth Worker will support, there is an expectation to work across others as required.

Overview of the post:

As our new Youth Worker, you will work alongside the Project Lead and Head of Youth Work and Education and be responsible for delivering youth work activities across several of our key projects. The Youth Worker will sustain a belief in the intrinsic value of young people, and a desire to support young people's wellbeing and development.

The postholder will ensure our youth work maintains its excellent standing and reputation through services of the highest quality and greatest relevance to our beneficiaries. They will represent and promote the charity and its charitable activities amongst the community, with volunteers, families and other professionals, and be an advocate for young people.

They will demonstrate excellent communication skills and the ability to engage with young people with a range of diverse needs. The Youth Worker will be creative, flexible and demonstrate a passion and skill for supporting and developing young people in our care.

The postholder will be exceptional, practical and with a positive attitude to work in this key role which equips young people with the experiences and skills they need to flourish and be valuable contributors to society. The Youth Worker will proactively build a safe environment for young people and offer engaging, diverse, and impactful activities based on sound evidence and feedback from young people.
