

The Anatomy of Worship

Revelation 4

Pastor Alan Feere · Sunday Morning · April 26, 2026

INTRODUCTION

We speak a lot of worship. That's because it is the _____ of the church. It is the purpose of God's people.

What God has purposed the church with:

- The Preaching of the _____
- The Worship of God
- The Evangelism of the Lost
- The Fellowship and Edification of the Saints
- The Restoration of the Fallen

The Word and Worship are the _____ emphases. There is no clearer vision of worship than that which takes place in _____!

I. That which _____ our Worship (Revelation 4:6–10)

A. The Load of _____ (vv. 6–8)

The beasts represent the _____ of God. Their cries of Holy, Holy, Holy declare that the presence of God is a Holy place you cannot enter unless you too are _____.

Psalm 150:6

1. Sin against the _____

Private, Personal or Public

Psalm 66:18 If I regard _____ in my heart, the Lord will not hear me:

2. Sin against the _____ of God

Matthew 5:23–24

B. The Love of _____ (v. 8)

The emphasis in worship can be nothing other than the _____!

C. The Lack of _____ (vv. 9–10)

Revelation 4:10 ...and _____ before the throne, saying,

There is complete surrender and _____ in worship. No crowns are allowed in His presence.

Growth Point: We are to be _____ as Christ is Holy, we are to be _____ before our God, we are to be lifting up only Him!

II. That which _____ our Worship (Revelation 4:8–11)

The four and twenty elders represent the _____ in Revelation.

A. The _____ of their Worship (vv. 8–10)

“Rest not day and night.” God’s people should live a _____ of worship!

B. They _____ in Worship (v. 10)

The picture is of subjects _____ before their King!

C. The _____ in their Worship

Notice the narrow scope of their worship: “the _____” again and again (vv. 2–10).

There is _____ throne and one God who sits upon it, who created all that is for His _____, and we will bow down before Him and praise and worship Him forever!

Revelation 4:11 Thou art _____, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

III. The _____ to Worship

The church is the assembly of those who have by faith and God’s grace been _____ by the blood of the Lamb.

TAKE IT HOME

You have been _____ to join them!

MY NOTES