The Inerrancy of Scripture

2 Timothy 3:16

Pastor Alan Feere · Sunday Evening · June 28, 2026

INTRODUCTION

The doctrine of inerrancy teaches that Scripture is completely without error because it is the very Word of God.

I. _____ Inspired — The Scripture is God-breathed

2 Timothy 3:16 All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness.

A. God is the _____ of Scripture

2 Peter 1:21

Scripture did not originate in man's imagination.

B. God is _____ of error

Titus 1:2 In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;

If God cannot lie, His Word cannot contain error.

II. Perfectly _____ — The Scripture is Unchanging

Psalm 12:6–7

A. God's Word is _____ Completely refined. Completely uncontaminated.

B. God's Word is _____

Matthew 24:35 Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

Creation is temporary. Scripture is eternal.

III. Completely _____ — The Scripture is Without Error!

John 17:17 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

A. Scripture _____ truth (not just contains truth)

John 10:35

Jesus affirmed Scripture's absolute reliability. It cannot be annulled or overturned.

IV. Uniquely _____ — The Scripture is Living and Powerful

Hebrews 4:12

A. It _____ the Heart

Jeremiah 23:29

B. It _____ the Believer

Psalm 119:105 Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

C. It _____ Transformation

Romans 12:2

James 1:21

Psalm 119:89 For ever, O LORD, thy word is settled in heaven.

TAKE IT HOME

Because Scripture is divinely inspired, perfectly preserved, absolutely inerrant and powerfully active, we must believe it fully, preach it faithfully, and obey it daily.
