Revive Us O God

Isaiah 57:14–21

Isaiah 57:15 For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

Revival is the work of God in restoring the hearts of His people through humility, repentance, and renewed fellowship with Him.

I. The _____ of Revival (Isaiah 57:15)

A. His _____ – He is Sovereign (Psalm 85:6)

"For thus saith the high and lofty One…" Revival cannot be manufactured by human effort.

B. His _____ – He is Eternal (Malachi 3:6)

"…that inhabiteth eternity…" The God who revived His people in the past can revive His people today.

C. His _____ – He is Holy (Isaiah 6:3)

"…whose name is Holy…" We cannot expect revival while tolerating sin.

II. The _____ of Revival (Isaiah 57:15)

A. A _____ Spirit (James 4:6)

Humility recognizes our need.

B. A _____ Spirit (Psalm 51:17)

Contrition is a heart that is genuinely broken over sin.

C. A _____ Spirit (2 Chronicles 7:14)

We can know… but we must also respond! Willing to confess, forsake, obey and change.

III. The _____ of Revival (Isaiah 57:15–18)

A. A Spiritual _____ (v. 15; Psalm 119:25)

B. A Spiritual _____ (v. 16; 1 John 1:9)

God desires fellowship with His people. Sin disrupts fellowship. Revival restores what has been neglected.

C. A Spiritual _____ (vv. 17–18)

Revival is not simply getting back to where we once were. It is allowing God to lead us where He wants us to be.

IV. The _____ of Revival (Isaiah 57:18–21)

A. _____ – "I will heal him…" (v. 18a)

B. _____ – "I will lead him also…" (v. 18b)

C. _____ – "…and restore comforts unto him…" (v. 18c)

D. _____ – "Peace, peace…" (vv. 19–21)

Isaiah 57:21 There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

Conclusion: Revival Begins with Me

- Am I humble enough to admit that I need revival?
- Am I broken enough over sin to seek God's forgiveness?
- Am I willing to let God restore and redirect my life?
