

The Great Spiritual Awakening

January Devotional

A Pastoral Welcome

Beloved Destiny of Faith Family,

We believe God is inviting us into a sacred season—a time of awakening, alignment, and renewal. The Great Spiritual Awakening is not simply a theme or a series; it is a call from the Lord for His people to be set apart, to live holy lives, and to walk daily in righteousness empowered by His Spirit.

Over these next 90 days, we are intentionally slowing down, creating space for God to do deep work within us. This devotional is designed to help you posture your heart before Him—through prayer, reflection, Scripture, and intentional living. We encourage you to engage fully, not striving for perfection, but yielding to transformation.

As you walk through this journey, remember that awakening begins within. What God does personally in us, He will use powerfully through us—for our families, our church, and our community. We are praying with expectation, believing that God will meet you in these moments and lead you into deeper intimacy with Him.

With love and expectation,
Pastor Ken and Mary Lazard

Week 1

Sanctification — Being Set Apart for God

Week 2

Living Holy for God

Week 3

Righteous Living

2026 – The Great Spiritual Awakening

90 Days of Worship: January 1 – April 5 (Easter)

January Teaching:

Romans 6:19 (AMP) - 19I am speaking in [familiar] human terms because of your natural limitations [your spiritual immaturity]. For just as you presented your bodily members as slaves to impurity and to [moral] lawlessness, leading to further lawlessness, so now offer your members [your abilities, your talents] as slaves to righteousness, leading to sanctification [that is, being set apart for God's purpose].

Week 2 – Sanctification

Week 3 – Living Holy For God

Week 4 – Righteous Living

February Teaching:

1 Peter 1:15-16 (AMP) - 15But like the Holy One who called you, be holy yourselves in all your conduct [be set apart from the world by your godly character and moral courage]; 16because it is written, “You shall be holy (set apart), for I am holy.”

Week 1 – Being Set Apart

Week 2 – Moral Purity

Week 3 – God's Nature “Holiness”

Week 4 – Christlikeness

March Teaching:

John 16:8 (AMP) - 8And He, when He comes, will convict the world about [the guilt of] sin [and the need for a Savior], and about righteousness, and about judgment:

Week 1 – Conviction Righteousness – Holy Spirit Roles

Week 2 – Conviction of Sin – Holy Spirit Roles

Week 3 – Conviction of Judgement – Holy Spirit

Week 4 – Prayer & Repentance

Week 5 – Fasting & Reflection

THE GREAT SPIRITUAL AWAKENING – JANUARY DEVOTIONAL

Key Scripture for the Month: Romans 6:19 (AMP) - 19I am speaking in [familiar] human terms because of your natural limitations [your spiritual immaturity]. For just as you presented your bodily members as slaves to impurity and to [moral] lawlessness, leading to further lawlessness, so now offer your members [your abilities, your talents] as slaves to righteousness, leading to sanctification [that is, being set apart for God's purpose].

The Great Spiritual Awakening is not just something we read—it's something we live, through weekly rhythms of prayer, reflection, and intentional presence.

WEEK 1: JANUARY 11–17

Theme: Sanctification — Being Set Apart for God

WEEK 2: JANUARY 18–24

Theme: Living Holy for God

WEEK 3: JANUARY 25–31

Theme: Righteous Living

Weekend Rhythm for The Great Spiritual Awakening

Sunday – Corporate Alignment (Attend in-person 9AM Prayer):

Sundays during The Great Spiritual Awakening are set aside for corporate prayer and spiritual alignment. Each week, we gather at 9AM prayer to collectively offer ourselves to God, invite His presence, and align our hearts with His will. There is power when God's people pray together—what we surrender individually, God strengthens corporately. Come expectant, come open, and come ready to be shaped by the Holy Spirit.

Saturday – Intentional Living (Practice Without Rushing):

Saturdays are designed as a time of intentional living and reflection. This is not about checking off a task, but about creating space for God to speak and restore your soul. Choose an activity that slows you down and re-centers your heart—such as taking a quiet walk outside without technology, sharing a meaningful meal with your spouse or children, or intentionally speaking life and vision into yourself or your household. These moments of intentionality help prepare your heart for the week ahead and allow God's work within you to deepen.

Monday, January 12 – What Sanctification Is (and Isn't)

Sanctification is not about becoming perfect overnight. It is the ongoing work of God setting us apart for His purpose. Paul reminds us that we once offered our lives freely to sin—but now we are invited to offer those same lives to righteousness. Sanctification is not punishment; it is alignment. God is not trying to take something from you—He is shaping you into who you were always meant to be.

Key Scripture

Romans 6:19 (AMP) - 19I am speaking in [familiar] human terms because of your natural limitations [your spiritual immaturity]. For just as you presented your bodily members as slaves to impurity and to [moral] lawlessness, leading to further lawlessness, so now offer your members [your abilities, your talents] as slaves to righteousness, leading to sanctification [that is, being set apart for God's purpose].

Confirming Scriptures:

1 Thessalonians 4:3 — “For this is the will of God, your sanctification...”

Philippians 1:6 — “He who began a good work in you will perfect it...”

Hebrews 10:14 — “For by one offering He has perfected forever those who are being sanctified.”

Prayer/Practice:

“Lord, I thank You that sanctification is Your work in me, not something I have to manufacture on my own. I offer myself to You again today—my thoughts, habits, desires, and decisions. Shape me, set me apart, and align my life with Your purpose. I trust You to complete what You've begun in me.”

Tuesday, January 13 – Offering What You Already Have

Paul says we offer our members—our abilities, time, talents, and patterns of living. Sanctification begins when we stop waiting for “more” and instead give God what's already in our hands. God sanctifies surrendered lives, not perfect ones. What you place in His hands today, He can use for His glory.

Key Scripture

Romans 6:19 (AMP) - 19I am speaking in [familiar] human terms because of your natural limitations [your spiritual immaturity]. For just as you presented your bodily members as slaves to impurity and to [moral] lawlessness, leading to further lawlessness, so now offer your members [your abilities, your talents] as slaves to righteousness, leading to sanctification [that is, being set apart for God's purpose].

Confirming Scriptures:

Romans 12:1 — “Present your bodies as a living sacrifice...”

Matthew 25:21 — “You were faithful with a few things...”

Proverbs 3:5–6 — “In all your ways acknowledge Him...”

Prayer/Practice:

“Father, I bring You what I have—not what I wish I had. I surrender my abilities, my time, and my influence to You. Use what is already in my life for Your purposes. Teach me to trust that obedience matters more than abundance.”

Wednesday, January 14 – Breaking Old Patterns

Paul contrasts two paths: lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, and righteousness leading to sanctification. Whatever we repeatedly give ourselves to shapes us. Sanctification requires honesty—naming the patterns God is asking us to release so something new can grow. Freedom begins when we stop pretending and start surrendering.

Key Scripture:

Romans 6:19 (AMP) - 19I am speaking in [familiar] human terms because of your natural limitations [your spiritual immaturity]. For just as you presented your bodily members as slaves to impurity and to [moral] lawlessness, leading to further lawlessness, so now offer your members [your abilities, your talents] as slaves to righteousness, leading to sanctification [that is, being set apart for God's purpose].

Confirming Scriptures:

Galatians 6:8 — “The one who sows to the Spirit will reap eternal life.”

Hebrews 12:1 — “Lay aside every weight and the sin which so easily entangles.”

2 Corinthians 3:17 — “Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom.”

Prayer/Practice:

“Holy Spirit, show me the patterns in my life that no longer align with Your will. Give me courage to release what is holding me back and faith to trust You with the process of change. I choose freedom over familiarity today. Lead me in Your way of life.”

Thursday, January 15 – Set Apart, Not Isolated

Being set apart doesn't mean withdrawing from people—it means living differently among them. Sanctification shapes our words, responses, and character. God sets us apart for His purposes, so that others can see His love and truth through our lives.

Key Scripture:

Romans 6:19 (AMP) - 19I am speaking in [familiar] human terms because of your natural limitations [your spiritual immaturity]. For just as you presented your bodily members as slaves to impurity and to [moral] lawlessness, leading to further lawlessness, so now offer your members [your abilities, your talents] as slaves to righteousness, leading to sanctification [that is, being set apart for God's purpose].

Confirming Scriptures:

John 17:15–18 — “I do not ask that You take them out of the world...”

Matthew 5:16 — “Let your light shine before others...”

1 Peter 2:12 — “Keep your conduct honorable...”

Prayer/Practice:

“God, help me live set apart without becoming distant or withdrawn. Let my life reflect Your character in the spaces You've placed me. Teach me how to be present in the world while fully devoted to You. May others see You through the way I live.”

Friday, January 16 – Trusting the Process

Sanctification is a journey, not a moment. Some days feel like progress; others feel slow. But God is faithful. When we offer ourselves daily, He steadily shapes us into who He's called us to be. Growth may be quiet, but it is real.

Key Scripture:

Romans 6:19 (AMP) - 19I am speaking in [familiar] human terms because of your natural limitations [your spiritual immaturity]. For just as you presented your bodily members as slaves to impurity and to [moral] lawlessness, leading to further lawlessness, so now offer your members [your abilities, your talents] as slaves to righteousness, leading to sanctification [that is, being set apart for God's purpose].

Confirming Scriptures:

Ecclesiastes 3:11 — "He has made everything beautiful in its time."

Isaiah 64:8 — "We are the clay, and You our potter."

Psalms 138:8 — "The Lord will perfect what concerns me."

Prayer/Practice:

"Lord, help me trust You in every stage of this process. When growth feels slow, remind me that You are still working. I place my life back in Your hands today. Shape me according to Your wisdom and timing."

Ask yourself: Where did I notice God forming me this week, and how can I carry that awareness into the days ahead?

Saturday Reminder - Saturdays are for intention. Slow down, step away from distraction, and create space—whether through a quiet walk, a shared meal, or meaningful conversation with your family.

Sunday Reminder - Sundays are for alignment. Join us for 9AM Prayer as we gather to surrender our lives and invite God to shape us together.

Monday, January 19 – Holy Belongs to God

To be holy is to belong fully to God. Holiness is not about rule-keeping—it's about ownership. When our lives belong to God, our choices begin to reflect His nature. Holiness is the natural fruit of surrender.

Key Scripture:

Romans 6:19 (AMP) - 19I am speaking in [familiar] human terms because of your natural limitations [your spiritual immaturity]. For just as you presented your bodily members as slaves to impurity and to [moral] lawlessness, leading to further lawlessness, so now offer your members [your abilities, your talents] as slaves to righteousness, leading to sanctification [that is, being set apart for God's purpose].

Confirming Scriptures:

1 Corinthians 6:19–20 — “You are not your own...”

Leviticus 20:26 — “You shall be holy to Me...”

Colossians 1:22 — “To present you holy and blameless...”

Prayer/Practice:

“Father, I acknowledge today that my life belongs to You. Teach me to live with that awareness in every area of my life. Let my decisions, words, and attitudes reflect Your holiness. I want to belong fully and freely to You.”

Tuesday, January 20 – Holiness in Everyday Choices

Holiness isn't reserved for church moments—it's lived out in everyday decisions. What we watch, say, prioritize, and pursue all matter. Living holy means inviting God into ordinary moments and letting Him shape them.

Key Scripture:

Romans 6:19 (AMP) - 19I am speaking in [familiar] human terms because of your natural limitations [your spiritual immaturity]. For just as you presented your bodily members as slaves to impurity and to [moral] lawlessness, leading to further lawlessness, so now offer your members [your abilities, your talents] as slaves to righteousness, leading to sanctification [that is, being set apart for God's purpose].

Confirming Scriptures:

Luke 16:10 — “Faithful in little, faithful in much.”

Proverbs 4:23 — “Guard your heart...”

Colossians 3:17 — “Whatever you do... do it in the name of the Lord.”

Prayer/Practice:

“God, help me recognize that holiness shows up in the small choices of my day. I invite You into my routines, conversations, and decisions. Shape my life to reflect You even when no one is watching. Let faithfulness mark my everyday walk.”

Wednesday, January 21 – Holy Motives

God doesn't only shape what we do—He shapes why we do it. Holiness begins in the heart. When our motives align with God's heart, our actions naturally follow. True holiness is inward before it is outward.

Key Scripture:

Romans 6:19 (AMP) - 19I am speaking in [familiar] human terms because of your natural limitations [your spiritual immaturity]. For just as you presented your bodily members as slaves to impurity and to [moral] lawlessness, leading to further lawlessness, so now offer your members [your abilities, your talents] as slaves to righteousness, leading to sanctification [that is, being set apart for God's purpose].

Confirming Scriptures:

Psalms 51:10 — “Create in me a clean heart...”

Hebrews 4:12 — “Discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart.”

Matthew 6:1 — “Beware of practicing righteousness before others...”

Prayer/Practice:

“Search my heart, Lord, and purify my motives. Help me desire what You desire and love what You love. Remove anything rooted in pride, fear, or self-interest. Form my heart so my life flows from sincerity and truth.”

Thursday, January 22 – Grace-Powered Holiness

Holiness is sustained by grace, not willpower. We don't make ourselves holy—God does. Our role is to remain surrendered and responsive to His Spirit. Grace empowers what effort never could.

Key Scripture:

Romans 6:19 (AMP) - 19I am speaking in [familiar] human terms because of your natural limitations [your spiritual immaturity]. For just as you presented your bodily members as slaves to impurity and to [moral] lawlessness, leading to further lawlessness, so now offer your members [your abilities, your talents] as slaves to righteousness, leading to sanctification [that is, being set apart for God's purpose].

Confirming Scriptures:

Titus 2:11–12 — “The grace of God... trains us to live godly lives.”

Zechariah 4:6 — “Not by might nor by power...”

John 15:5 — “Apart from Me you can do nothing.”

Prayer/Practice:

“Lord, I release the pressure to do this on my own. I receive Your grace as my strength today. Teach me to rely on Your Spirit instead of my own effort. Let holiness flow from relationship, not performance.”

Friday, January 23 – A Life That Reflects God

When we live holy, people don't just see us—they see God at work in us. Holiness makes God visible through our lives. A surrendered life becomes a powerful testimony.

Key Scripture:

Romans 6:19 (AMP) - 19I am speaking in [familiar] human terms because of your natural limitations [your spiritual immaturity]. For just as you presented your bodily members as slaves to impurity and to [moral] lawlessness, leading to further lawlessness, so now offer your members [your abilities, your talents] as slaves to righteousness, leading to sanctification [that is, being set apart for God's purpose].

Confirming Scriptures:

2 Corinthians 3:18 — “Being transformed into His image...”

Matthew 5:14 — “You are the light of the world.”

Philippians 2:15 — “Shine as lights in the world.”

Prayer/Practice:

“God, let my life reflect You clearly and faithfully. May my words, actions, and attitudes point others toward You. I want to be a vessel through which Your love and truth flow freely. Use my life for Your glory.”

Ask yourself: Where did I notice God forming me this week, and how can I carry that awareness into the days ahead?

Saturday Reminder - Saturdays are for intention. Slow down, step away from distraction, and create space—whether through a quiet walk, a shared meal, or meaningful conversation with your family.

Sunday Reminder - Sundays are for alignment. Join us for 9AM Prayer as we gather to surrender our lives and invite God to shape us together.

Monday, January 26 – Righteousness Is a Direction

Righteousness is not about never failing—it's about choosing the right direction. When we turn our lives toward God, He leads us step by step. Growth happens when direction is consistent.

Key Scripture:

Romans 6:19 (AMP) - 19I am speaking in [familiar] human terms because of your natural limitations [your spiritual immaturity]. For just as you presented your bodily members as slaves to impurity and to [moral] lawlessness, leading to further lawlessness, so now offer your members [your abilities, your talents] as slaves to righteousness, leading to sanctification [that is, being set apart for God's purpose].

Confirming Scriptures:

Proverbs 4:18 — “The path of the righteous...”

Psalms 37:23 — “The steps of a righteous person are ordered by the Lord.”

Isaiah 30:21 — “This is the way; walk in it.”

Prayer/Practice:

“Lord, I choose Your direction today. Even when the path feels slow or unfamiliar, I trust Your leading. Order my steps and align my heart with Your will. Help me walk faithfully, one step at a time.”

Tuesday, January 27 – Choosing Righteousness Daily

Righteous living is built on daily decisions. Each yes to God strengthens our walk and shapes our character. Small acts of obedience accumulate into lasting transformation.

Key Scripture:

Romans 6:19 (AMP) - 19I am speaking in [familiar] human terms because of your natural limitations [your spiritual immaturity]. For just as you presented your bodily members as slaves to impurity and to [moral] lawlessness, leading to further lawlessness, so now offer your members [your abilities, your talents] as slaves to righteousness, leading to sanctification [that is, being set apart for God's purpose].

Confirming Scriptures:

Luke 9:23 — “Take up your cross daily...”

Galatians 5:16 — “Walk by the Spirit...”

James 1:22 — “Be doers of the word...”

Prayer/Practice:

“Father, give me strength to choose righteousness today. Help me recognize moments where obedience matters most. I want my daily choices to honor You. Shape my life through consistent faithfulness.”

Wednesday, January 28 – Righteousness That Impacts Others

Our righteousness doesn't stop with us. It touches our families, workplaces, and communities. When we walk with God, others experience the fruit of that walk.

Key Scripture:

Romans 6:19 (AMP) - 19I am speaking in [familiar] human terms because of your natural limitations [your spiritual immaturity]. For just as you presented your bodily members as slaves to impurity and to [moral] lawlessness, leading to further lawlessness, so now offer your members [your abilities, your talents] as slaves to righteousness, leading to sanctification [that is, being set apart for God's purpose].

Confirming Scriptures:

Proverbs 11:30 — “The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life.”

Matthew 7:16 — “You will know them by their fruits.”

Micah 6:8 — “Do justice, love kindness...”

Prayer/Practice:

“God, let my obedience bless others. Use my life to bring peace, healing, and hope where You've placed me. Help me live with awareness of how my choices affect those around me. Make my life fruitful for Your kingdom.”

Thursday, January 29 – Righteousness with Humility

Righteous living never produces pride—it produces humility and gratitude. True righteousness recognizes that everything we become flows from God’s grace. We walk confidently, but humbly.

Key Scripture:

Romans 6:19 (AMP) - 19I am speaking in [familiar] human terms because of your natural limitations [your spiritual immaturity]. For just as you presented your bodily members as slaves to impurity and to [moral] lawlessness, leading to further lawlessness, so now offer your members [your abilities, your talents] as slaves to righteousness, leading to sanctification [that is, being set apart for God’s purpose].

Confirming Scriptures:

James 4:6 — “God gives grace to the humble.”

Micah 6:8 — “Walk humbly with your God.”

Philippians 2:3 — “In humility, value others...”

Prayer/Practice:

“Lord, keep my heart humble as You grow me. Remind me that every good thing in my life comes from You. Guard me from pride and self-reliance. Teach me to walk with gratitude and humility before You.”

Friday, January 30 – A Life Fully Offered

Righteous living is the fruit of a life fully offered to God. As January ends, remember: what you continually offer to God, He continually sanctifies. Surrender leads to transformation.

Key Scripture:

Romans 6:19 (AMP) - 19I am speaking in [familiar] human terms because of your natural limitations [your spiritual immaturity]. For just as you presented your bodily members as slaves to impurity and to [moral] lawlessness, leading to further lawlessness, so now offer your members [your abilities, your talents] as slaves to righteousness, leading to sanctification [that is, being set apart for God’s purpose].

Confirming Scriptures:

Psalms 116:12 — “What shall I render to the Lord...”

Romans 8:10 — “The Spirit gives life because of righteousness.”

2 Timothy 1:9 — “Called us with a holy calling...”

Prayer/Practice:

“God, I offer my whole life to You—past, present, and future. Take everything I am and use it for Your glory. Thank You for walking with me through this season of awakening. I trust You to continue the work You’ve started in me.”

Ask yourself: Where did I notice God forming me this week, and how can I carry that awareness into the days ahead?

Saturday Reminder - Saturdays are for intention. Slow down, step away from distraction, and create space—whether through a quiet walk, a shared meal, or meaningful conversation with your family.

Sunday Reminder - Sundays are for alignment. Join us for 9AM Prayer as we gather to surrender our lives and invite God to shape us together.
