

CHESTERTON ACADEMY
OF OUR LADY OF VICTORY

MATH TEACHER

Start Date: August 15, 2026

Employment Type: Full-Time | Year-Round | Exempt

Salary Range: $50,000–$80,000

Reports to: Headmaster

Chesterton Academy of Our Lady of Victory, a joyfully and authentically Catholic high school in south Denver educating students in the Western civilization tradition and the liberal arts and sciences, seeks dynamic teachers who desire to contribute to an engaging and joyful school culture and to lead young adults in their academic and spiritual formation. The successful candidate must have a passion for mathematics, which is matched by their love of teaching and forming high school students in the Catholic faith.

Candidates must be practicing Catholics, pursuing a life of virtue and holiness through prayer and the Sacramental life. They must also be willing to take the Oath of Fidelity to the Magisterium. These are necessary for modeling the Christian life to the students.

The ideal candidate will demonstrate strong proficiencies in content knowledge, teaching ability, organizational skills, and written and verbal communication skills. Accompanying these should be a passion to inspire wonder and excellence in students and a sense of the connections between math and science and the humanities.

A bachelor's degree (or higher) in the subject matter being taught is required; teaching experience or training in classical/liberal arts education is also preferred. Exceptional candidates who are transitioning from other careers or recent college graduates will also be considered. A track record of contributing to the vision and mission of an apostolic and educational enterprise is also desirable.

Schedule:

- Full-time (40+ hours/week)
- Some weekend and evening events are required

Full-Time Benefits:

- Medical coverage (70% employer-paid premiums for employee and dependents) · Health savings account with employer pre-tax contributions
