SPECIAL POURS VIA CORAVIN

WHITES

75ml / 150ml / Btl

2023 Bodegas Luis Perez 'Muelle de Olaso' Palomino, Marco de Jerez SP

11 / 22 / 110

Down in the very south of Spain, not too far from Cádiz, you'll find some of the best value, most interesting, and perhaps most importantly, most delicious whites in all of Spain! This is a bone dry style of Palomino showing off peaches, apples, and pears mixed with cracked wheat and lifted white florals all over the top of an intensely chalky palate.

2024 Ciro Picariello Fiano di Avellino, Campania IT

11 / 22 / 110

High up in the volcanic mountains of Campania (the same volcanic mountains that include Vesuvius!) you'll find Ciro Picariello and his wife working away tirelessly to craft some of Italy's greatest white wines from the ancient Fiano grape. Amalfi lemons splashed over green apple and rosemary sprigs, the wine races down the palate delivering refreshing lemon sorbet and crystalline minerality.

2022 Sylvain Pataille Aligoté, Bourgogne FR

15 / 30 / 150

Aligoté is a bit of a secret (or maybe not so secret) love of ours at Mount Erica. It's a grape originating in Burgundy that was long seen as secondary to the more familiar Chardonnay, but is currently seeing a bit of a rebirth and entering a golden age through producers like Pataille. So, what's it like? It's a very comfortable side step from Chardy, though it certainly has its own distinct nature too. Lemon blossom and crunchy green apples mingle with a touch of spice and almond paste, there's incredibly racy acidity that is a nice counter to the slightly waxy, citrus laden texture.

2016 Mac Forbes 'Wesburn Vineyard' Chenin Blanc, Yarra Valley VIC

18 / 36 / 180

Mac Forbes has established himself over the last 15 years as one of the Yarra Valley's most thoughtful growers and producers, exploring site and sub-regionality like very few others. Chenin Blanc has long been a passion project for Mac, and at ten years deep, this is beginning to become what he dreamt it might be during the 2016 harvest. Ripe apricots mixed with apple cider, lemon zest and jasmine rise from the glass, there's an incredible length and freshness to this wine as it delivers ripe orchard fruit over the top of a chalky, almost saline finish.

2019 Radikon 'Jakot' Friulano (Skin Contact), Venezia Giulia, Friuli IT

23 / 46 / 150

When it comes to the ancient styles of wine that fall under the Skins/Amber umbrella, Radikon is without a doubt one of the top reference points. This is the most ancient style of wine still in existence today, reaching back through 8,000 years of history and culture... but, this style of winemaking was almost lost to time. Over much of the last century the regions that were best known for amber wines found themselves in post war border zones, and under regimes with an unsympathetic view towards their traditions. In the mid 90s Radikon, amongst a few others, was responsible for bringing these wines back into the public consciousness. Wild notes of burned oranges, tangerines, saffron and ginger spice billow from the glass. The wine splashes across the palate delivering tangy citrus, green olive, and a lick of black tea through the finish. A completely unique wine to experience.

ROSÉ

75ml / 150ml / Btl

2023 Bendito Destino 'Clarete' Tempranillo Blend, Ribera del Duero SP

15 / 30 / 150

Clarete is an ancient style of rose found in Spain that's typically a field blend of red and white grapes, picked and pressed together. Under the bureaucracy of the Franco regime the style went underground and was not permitted on labels, but it was so beloved that it never truly disappeared. In the modern Spanish wine scene this style has been revitalised and, in the case of Bendito Destino, taken to new heights. Fragrant wild strawberry and pomegranate mingle with white florals and a hint of mountain herb before delivering zesty, crisp and mineral inflected notes on the palate.

REDS

2021 Avani 'Issan Vineyard' Pinot Noir, Gippsland VIC

15 / 30 / 150

Many people are familiar with Avani through their Mornington Peninsula Syrah, one of the most stunning takes on that variety you'll find around. But long before the Syrah, vigneron Shashi Singh was the assistant winemaker at legendary Gippsland producer Bass Phillip. It was over her years working here with Phillip Jones that she honed her skills and developed her craft, so it was only natural that she should take over the famed Issan Vineyard after the 2020 sale of Bass Phillip. Dark cherries, crushed rose petals and sandalwood mingle with black olive, rosemary and a faint whisper of campfire on the breeze. The wine is powerfully built but superbly elegant in nature, opening up beautifully on the palate to show off pure berry fruits and floral spice through the finish.

2018 Devaux 'Chanseux' Rosé Des Riceys Pinot Noir (Still Red), Champagne FR

22 / 44 / 220

If you're scratching your head after seeing the word 'Champagne' then rest assured you are not going crazy! Whilst the region is primarily known for its sparkling wines, it also has a long tradition of making very fine and elegant still wines. In fact, this particular style 'Rosé Des Riceys' is its own special appellation, and is reminiscent of the style drunk by Louis XIV at the court of Versailles before bubbles were the norm in Champagne. Aromas of wild strawberries, black cherry compote and chinese five spice billow from the glass, there's some great layering here as the wine reveals fleshy berry fruits on the palate over the top of a fine, silky kind of texture. This is a curious historical throwback that's absolutely thriving in a modern world.

2021 Girolamo Russo 'San Lorenzo' Nerello Mascalese, Mt. Etna, Sicily IT

20 / 40 / 200

Our latest offering of 'Volcano Juice' by the glass comes from the legendary Girolamo Russo, a classically trained musician who returned to the family home on the north face of Etna to farm what turn out to be some of the region's best vineyards. Russo's style of wine is about taming the raw power of this volcanic terroir and guiding it into a finessed and elegant shape, and he achieves this nowhere better than in the San Lorenzo Contrada. Juicy blackberry and black currants dusted in crushed white pepper, bougainvillea and wild fennel with just a lick of blood orange and intense, stoney minerality. There's a mixture of elegance and exoticism to this wine that just screams Sicily!

2022 Produttori del Barbaresco Nebbiolo, Barbaresco IT

18 / 36 / 180

Whilst its roots date back to the late 1800s, and the invention of Barbaresco wine itself, Produttori del Barbaresco was reborn in 1958 as a co-operative with the aim of emancipating the local farmers from post war poverty. Whilst they achieved this initial aim, they also drove the rise in quality for the region's wines and are considered by many to be one of the finest producers of Nebbiolo in Italy to this day! In many ways these wines are the dream of what Barbaresco should be, deliciously fragrant and hopelessly elegant. There's a riot of bright red cherries, fresh rose petals with hints of violet and chinese five spice. The layering of fruit, floral and spice over the top of the delicate, emery board tannin is absolutely masterful.
