SPECIAL POURS VIA CORAVIN

WHITES

50ml / 75ml / 150ml

2023 François Cotat 'Grande Côte' Sauvignon Blanc, Sancerre, FR

18 / 27 / 54

Old-vine Sauvignon Blanc from one of Chavignol's great slopes, crafted by one of its most culty producers.

Preserved lemon, white peaches and honeysuckle lift from the glass before giving way to reveal fresh almond, wet stone and a whisper of smoke. Rich and almost unctuous in texture, yet drawn taut by chalky minerality and salt-laced acidity.

This is a serious Savvy B!

2023 Bruna 'Le Russeghine' Pigato, Liguria, IT

13 / 26

This might just be Liguria in a glass... yellow peach, grapefruit, and wild Mediterranean herbs mingle with pine resin and bitter almonds over a long and salty finish. From Bruna's historic Russeghine vineyard, where Pigato (the local vermentino cultivar) grows on terraces above the Mediterranean in distinctive iron-rich red clay. Lees aging, with a portion in large oak, brings texture without sacrificing freshness. Savoury, mineral and full of coastal character.

2022 Vinos en Voz Baja 'Costumbres' Viura Blend, Rioja, SP

14 / 28

This is a tale of old vines saved from the wrath of 20th century homogenisation, and a gifted young vigneron, Carlos Mazo, making magic in the modern era. Smoked panacotta, juniper and rosemary mingle with a splash of valencia orange and lemon curd to round out the palate.

2020 Damijan Podversic Malvasia Istriana (Skin Contact), Collio, Friuli IT

12 / 18 / 36

The hills of Gorizia, tucked just within the north eastern Italian border with Slovenia, are a hot bed of curious wines made with indigenous grapes that sing a siren song for wine nerds the world over. Fragrant chamomile and wild honey with fresh peaches and aromatic herbs that lead to a luscious and silken finish.

ROSÈ

50ml / 75ml / 150ml

2024 Conterno 'Cantine Nervi' Nebbiolo Rosato, Gattinara IT

14 / 28

The confluence of a legendary producer like Roberto Conterno and Italy's most obsessed over grape, Nebbiolo, is a recipe for something very beautiful. Fresh raspberry, peach skins and lemon oil, with a whiff of roses and crushed stone, incredible crisp, crunchy and vibrantly refreshing.

REDS

50ml / 75ml / 150ml

2024 By Farr 'Farrside' Pinot Noir, Geelong VIC

16 / 24 / 48

The Farr family really need no introduction, they've been behind some of the country's greatest Pinots for close to five decades. Dark cherries and plum coupled with undergrowth, chinese spice, and a fine boned mineral edge sitting under silken fruit.

2021 A. Christmann 'Aus den Langen' Pinot Noir, Pfalz GR

13 / 19 / 38

Enter the world of Spätburgunder a.k.a. German Pinot Noir. Grown in the Pfalz since the middle ages, this is a wildly compelling wine, and a great alternative to Burgundy. Juicy blood orange and splashes of raspberry, fine boned, and laced with saline minerality.

2021 Syrahmi 'Home Block' Shiraz, Heathcote VIC

20 / 30 / 60

A benchmark for modern Australian Shiraz, from one of the country's great wine minds, Adam Foster. Fragrant and spicy, whispers of smoke and anise, layered with intense dark fruit and dense, granitic tannin.

BAROLO IN THREE ACTS

50ml / 75ml / 150ml

2021 Elio Altare, Barolo Classico

17 / 25 / 50

Altare is undoubtedly the poster child for the 'Modernista' style of Barolo, with current owner Sylvia Altare's father famously taking a chainsaw to the old large barrels to make way for small French casks, causing one of the biggest rifts in Italian wine history! Intense red berry fruits, wild roses, licorice and baking spice, the fruit is plush, winding around the tannin and providing a silky texture to the wine.

2020 Bartolo Mascarello, Barolo Classico

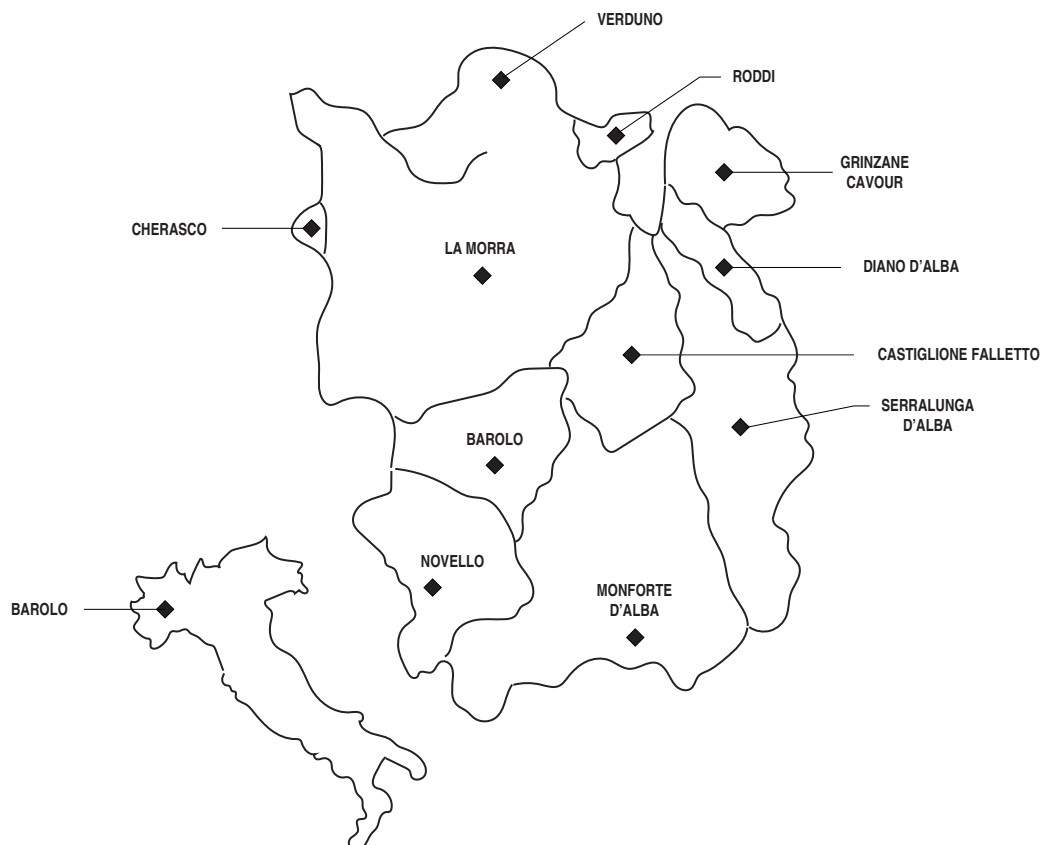

36 / 55 / 110

In 2005 the legendary Maria Teresa took over from her father Bartolo, a staunch 'Traditionalist'. Here they run the flag up the pole for the classic style by blending all their vineyards together, in this case San Lorenzo, Rué, Rocche dell'Annunziata and Cannubi, fermenting long on skins, and aging in large old barrels. Ethereal and lifted, rose petals and dried cherries with whispers of tar, mint and truffle over the top of firm, but velvet like tannins.

2021 Luigi Pira 'Margheria' Barolo, Serralunga d'Alba

18 / 26 / 52

Once firmly modernist, Pira has evolved towards a 'post-modernist' approach, with his Margheria vineyard displaying that in the best possible way via longer ferments and use of traditional large Slavonian oak. This is Serralunga with a gentler voice, the vineyard's unusually sandy seam brings perfume and finesse to Serralunga's formidable structure. This is a wine of pretty red cherries and decadent florals, with a splash of blood orange and an anise laced mineral core. An incredibly refined and detailed wine.

Nebbiolo is a grape that asks for patience. Grown in the fog-covered hills surrounding the village of Barolo, it produces wines unlike any other - delicate in colour, hauntingly perfumed and built to evolve over decades. What begins as firm tannin and vibrant acidity gradually softens with time, revealing layer upon layer of rose petals, red fruits, earth, spice and truffle.

The wines before you represent three defining moments in Barolo's modern history. One honours tradition, another challenged it, and the third continues to explore what Barolo can become. Together they remind us that great wine is never static. It is a conversation between people, place and time, one that continues to evolve with every generation.
