About Ella Davis

Jenny's other best friend, a small blonde girl with twinkly blue eyes. Ella is in the same year at school as Jenny and Hannah but in a different class. At nine years old, Ella is the baby of her year and so seems slightly younger and less confident in her behaviour than the other girls. Ella lives next door to Jenny on Latimer Drive. They have worked out a system where Jenny flashes her torch from the treehouse in her back garden onto Ella's bedroom window when she needs to get her attention. The friends message each other all the time, but this is much more fun!
