

A sunset over a field with the text "WHY AM I?" overlaid. The sun is partially obscured by the letter 'H' in "WHY". The sky is a gradient of orange and red, and the field is dark with some red flowers.

WHY AM I?

AM I A CHRISTIAN?

THE CALL

WHAT "AM I A CHRISTIAN?"

MEANS

①

A sunset over a field with a path leading towards the horizon. The sky is a gradient of orange and red, with the sun low on the horizon. The foreground is dark, showing a path and some vegetation.

Not a label you claim—an identity Christ gives

“Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.”

MATTHEW 4:19

“If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me.”

LUKE 9:23

“My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.”

JOHN 10:27

A sunset over a field with a path leading towards the horizon. The sun is a bright yellow circle in the center, partially obscured by dark silhouettes of trees or bushes. The sky is a gradient of orange and red, and the ground is dark with some reddish-brown patches.

Jesus doesn't invite admirers, consumers or mere believers. He calls followers—those who hear
His voice, leave the old life, and walk after Him.

THE GOSPEL

WHAT SAVES AND WHAT DOES NOT

②

“You are turning to a different gospel—not that there is another one...”

GALATIANS 1:6–7

“The gospel... is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes.”

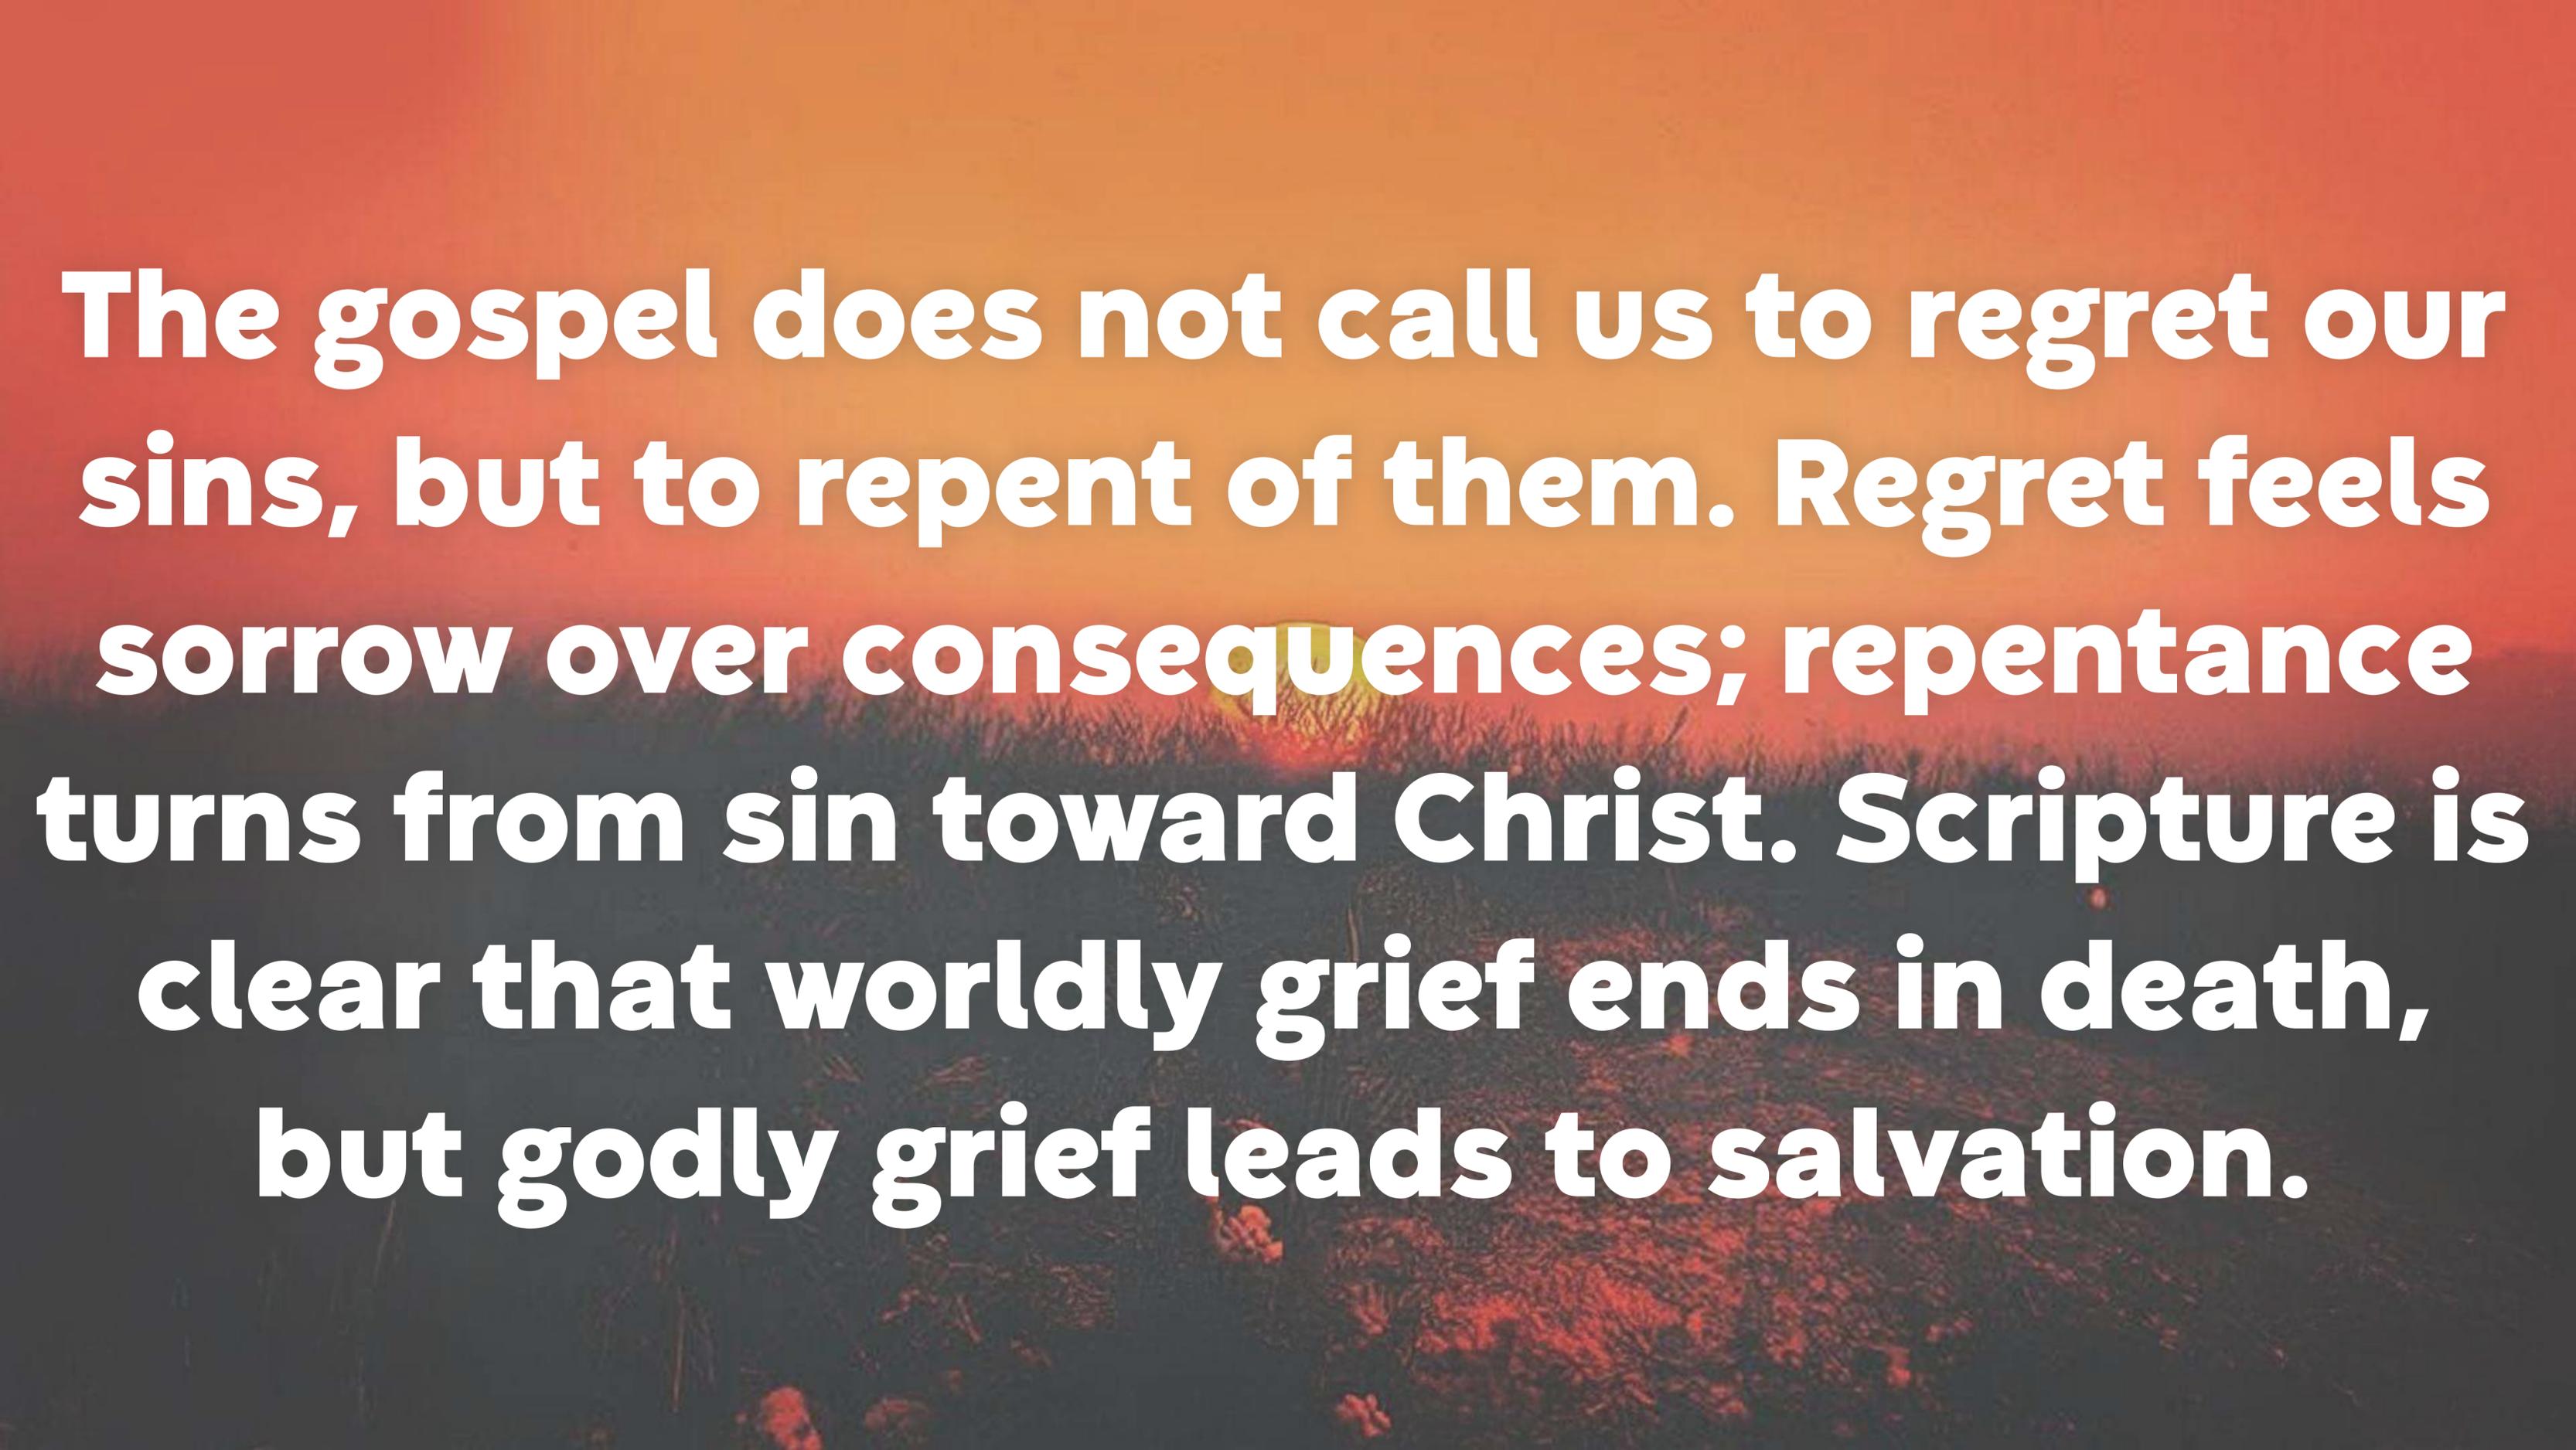

ROMANS 1:16

“Godly grief produces a repentance that leads to salvation without regret, whereas worldly grief produces death.”

2 CORINTHIANS 7:9–10

“Repent therefore, and turn back, that your sins may be blotted out.”

ACTS 3:19

A sunset over a field of tall grass with a path leading towards the horizon. The sky is a mix of orange, red, and yellow, with the sun low on the horizon. The grass is dark, and a path of lighter-colored grass or dirt leads from the foreground towards the horizon.

The gospel does not call us to regret our sins, but to repent of them. Regret feels sorrow over consequences; repentance turns from sin toward Christ. Scripture is clear that worldly grief ends in death, but godly grief leads to salvation.

THE NEW BIRTH

WHAT GOD DOES WHEN HE SAVES

③

“Unless one is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.”

JOHN 3:3

“If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation.”

2 CORINTHIANS 5:17

“I will give you a new heart... and cause you to walk in my statutes.”

EZEKIEL 36:26-27

A sunset scene with a bright sun low on the horizon, casting a warm orange and red glow over a field of tall grass. A path leads from the foreground towards the horizon. The text is overlaid in white, bold, sans-serif font.

Being born again is not a prayer you repeat—it is a miracle God performs. New heart. New nature. New direction. You don't just believe new things; you become someone new.

THE ASSURANCE

HOW YOU CAN KNOW WHO YOU ARE

④

“The Spirit himself bears witness... that we are children of God.”

ROMANS 8:15–16

“Whoever keeps his commandments abides in God.”

1 JOHN 3:24

“Examine yourselves, to see whether you are in the faith.”

2 CORINTHIANS 13:5

A sunset over a field with a path leading towards the horizon. The sun is a bright yellow circle in the center, partially obscured by dark silhouettes of trees or bushes. The sky is a gradient of orange and red, transitioning to a darker red at the top. The foreground is a dark, textured field with a path leading towards the horizon.

You can know who you are—not by perfection, but by direction: a growing love for Christ, obedience from the heart, conviction over sin, and the witness of the Spirit.

It is possible to feel sorrow for sin without ever turning from it. Emotional moments, sincere tears, or religious experiences can move us deeply, yet still leave us unchanged. Scripture lovingly warns us not to confuse feeling bad about sin with repenting of sin.

'Y' IN THE ROAD

The question is not merely, “Am I a Christian?” but “Am I a follower of Jesus Christ?” Have I turned from my sin and entrusted myself fully to Him—not just for forgiveness, but for complete leadership over my life?
