RESPONDENT’S RULE 26 SUPPLEMENTAL INITIAL DISCLOSURES

COMES NOW, Respondent, American CryptoFed DAO, LLC (“Respondent”), by and through its undersigned attorney, L. Cooper Overstreet with OVERSTREET HOMAR & KUKER, and hereby provides the following required supplemental initial disclosures pursuant to Wyoming Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 26(a)(1).

In his initial disclosures, Mr. Chuck Gray, Wyoming Secretary of State (“Petitioner”) has provided some documents related to CryptoFed’s proceedings instituted by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). Although CryptoFed does not anticipate that both parties have any intention of relitigating the SEC proceedings in this court, in the interest of disclosure and transparency, CryptoFed is providing related links to the SEC’s filings and dockets, in case CryptoFed needs these documents. Partially because the total documents are over tens of thousands of pages, partially because these proceedings are still pending and additional documents may be added, for the time being, only links to the SEC's filings and dockets are provided. These documents are public information and accessible by Petitioner. Bates No. will be provided when and if CryptoFed determines specific documents need to be identified pursuant to W.R.C.P. Rule 26.

DISCLAIMER: The following initial disclosures are provided in compliance with Wyoming Rule of Civil Procedure, Rule 26. Wyoming Rule of Civil Procedure, 26(a)(1)(A)(ii) – a copy of, or a description by category and location of, all documents, electronically stored information, and tangible things that the disclosing party has in its possession, custody, or control and may use to support its claims or defenses, unless the use would be solely for impeachment.

By providing and / or describing the following items, Respondent is not agreeing that the items identified are relevant or admissible. Respondent is simply attempting to comply in good faith with the required discovery rule and listing items presently in its possession, custody, or control or that it may use to support its claims or defenses.
