Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Am 6:1a, 4-7 | 1 Tim 6:11-16 | Lk 16:19-31

Grow:

Have you ever had a moment when you felt yourself to be the underdog, and wished that there were some champion who would come & defend your cause? Today, we see God described in those terms. Our psalm tells us that the Lord “raises up to those who are bowed down,” that he “protects strangers,” & “the fatherless & the widow he sustains.” But God doesn’t stop there. He wants us to become champions for the poor. Notice that our Gospel reading depicts the poor man named Lazarus in such a way that we cannot help but feel compassion for him. Here is a man who is in dire need, covered in sores, right outside the door of a rich man who has more than enough to provide for his own needs & those of Lazarus - but does nothing to help him. In fact, the rich man’s dog shows more compassion toward Lazarus (by licking his sores) than the rich man! The story is meant to prick our consciences & move us to have the same kind of response that God has - of compassion - leading us to become champions for those in need.

Go:

Throughout our history, the Church has been particularly effective at spreading the faith during those times when we’ve put care for the vulnerable at the center of our action. Before the advancements of modern medicine, members of the early Church risked their lives to care for those sick with contagious diseases. Their selfless example led many to faith in Christ. While our situation is much different today, we are called at the beginning of the first reading to not be complacent in our efforts to care for the poor. As we serve those most in need, our witness will likewise draw others to seek to know & follow the God of compassion whom we serve.

A Morning Offering ♦ Ofrecimiento de la Mañana
O Jesus, I come before you At the beginning of this day. I gaze at your face, I look upon your side Pierced by the lance. Your wounded heart speaks to me of God's love poured out for us. Take, Lord, and receive my heart: The words of faith that I speak, The works of justice I would do, My joys and sufferings. When I come to the Eucharistic table, Gather my offerings to your own For the life of the world. At the end of the day, Place me with Mary, your mother, And for her sake take me to your heart. Amen.	Oh Jesús, vengo ante Ti al comenzar este día. Contemplo tu rostro, miro tu costado traspasado por la lanza. Tu corazón herido me habla del amor de Dios derramado por nosotros. Toma, Señor, y recibe mi corazón: las palabras de fe que pronuncio, las obras de justicia que deseo realizar, mis alegrías y sufrimientos. Cuando me acerque a la mesa Eucarística, une mis ofrendas a las tuyas para la vida del mundo. Al final del día, ponme junto a María, tu Madre, y por amor a ella, llévame a tu corazón. Amén.
