Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Is 25:6-10a | Phil 4:12-14, 19-20 | Mt 22:1-14

Grow:

Today's Gospel comes from the latter chapters of Matthew, in which Jesus repeatedly speaks about our readiness for the end times and the coming judgment. This parable concludes with the striking image of a man being thrown out of the king's feast because he was not dressed in a proper wedding garment. While Tradition has often used this passage to communicate the importance of being properly disposed when approaching holy Communion, we ought not forget its other sense. To find a place at both the earthly and the heavenly wedding feast of the Lamb, we must strive to clothe ourselves with righteous deeds (see Rev. 19:7-9), cooperating with the grace the Lord has given us in baptism.

Go:

Our readings today reveal God's astonishing invitation to all humanity. Isaiah tells us that God "will provide for all peoples a feast of rich food and choice wines." The king in Jesus' parable announces this same divine invitation: "Behold, I have prepared my banquet, my calves and fattened cattle are killed, and everything is ready; come to the feast." In his letter Desiderio desideravi, Pope Francis wrote: "The world still does not know it, but everyone is invited to the supper of the wedding of the Lamb (Re: 19:9)." (5) As disciples of Jesus, our task is to be like the servants of the king in today's Gospel. So, too, the Lord sends us out to bring whomever we find to the feast. And, as Pope Francis said, "We must not allow ourselves even a moment of rest, knowing that still not everyone has received an invitation to this Supper or knowing that others have forgotten or have got lost along the way."

Reflect:

Just as the landowner sent messengers to the tenants of the vineyard, God sends people to us to proclaim the Gospel. Who are those people in your life who are calling you to a deeper relationship with God? How can you open your heart to hear the message of love and peace that they are proclaiming?

I am also deeply grateful to our parishioners, friends, volunteers, and everyone who contributed — whether by cooking, cleaning, purchasing a ticket, or helping in another way.

I'm delighted to share that we not only reached our goal but exceeded it, raising $32,600.

Your generosity, time, and support made this event a wonderful success.

Please know how sincerely grateful I am for each of you, and be assured of my prayers and love.

May God bless you abundantly!

Fr. Rodrigo

Mis palabras de profundo agradecimiento a nuestra Sociedad del Altar por organizar y ofrecer el desayuno parroquial de pancakes y burritos para recaudar fondos.

También estoy profundamente agradecido con todos ustedes, amigos, voluntarios y todos los que colaboraron, ya sea cocinando, limpiando, comprando un boleto o ayudando de alguna otra manera.

Me alegra compartirles que no solo alcanzamos nuestra meta, sino que la superamos, recaudando $32,600. Su generosidad, tiempo y apoyo hicieron de este evento un gran éxito. Sepan que los recuerdo en mis oraciones y les expreso mi cariño.
