The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Ez 34:11-12, 15-17 | 1 Cor 15:20-26, 28 | Mt 25:31-46

Grow:

Over the past several weeks, we have heard proclamations of the eternal kingdom of God, drawing our eyes forward to what is prepared for us after this life. This Sunday, we are invited to gaze upon Christ the King, who has conquered sin and death in order to welcome us into that eternal kingdom. To further understand his kingdom, we are called to meditate on what kind of king Christ is. Our first reading gives us a glimpse of his divine kingship. Christ does not rule or govern from afar; instead, we have a shepherd-king who tends to the needs of the sheep. As our king, Christ is present to us, his people, in ways that are intentional, sacrificial, and relational. This passage reminds me of Pope Francis' direction to a group of French priests in 2013 that they should be "shepherds with the 'smell of the sheep.'" Christ knows and loves us intimately, and he calls us into a relationship in which we are adopted sons and daughters of the Father.

Go:

Through our baptism, we have been invited into Christ's mission as priest, prophet, and king. By our participation in his kingship, we are charged with caring for the needs of others as Christ cares for us. In today's Gospel, Christ describes the judgment that we will receive according to how we have cared for others. It is a judgment not meant to frighten us, but to remind us of our call to love as we are loved. In our communities, our families, and as the Body of Christ in the Church, we are meant to reflect the life-giving love of the Trinity, in which there is a constant giving and receiving of love. We receive God's overwhelming love and mercy through the sacraments, and we reflect it to others by allowing his love to flow out through our lives and actions, thus extending his reign in the world.

A Catholic Prayer for Thanksgiving Day	♦	Oración para el Día de Acción de Gracias
Heavenly Father, we thank you for the gift of life, for the people gathered around our table, and for the food we are about to share. Thank you for the blessings we recognize and for the quiet ways you care for us each day. Bless this meal and all who grew, prepared, and served it. Remember those who are hungry or alone today. Comfort those who miss a loved one at their table, and help us make room in our hearts and homes for those in need. Above all, we thank you for your Son, Jesus Christ, who gives himself to us in the Eucharist. May the love we receive from him teach us to forgive freely, share generously, and serve one another with joy. Amen		Padre celestial, te damos gracias por el don de la vida, por quienes se reúnen alrededor de nuestra mesa y por los alimentos que vamos a compartir. Gracias por las bendiciones que reconocemos y por tantas maneras discretas en que nos cuidas cada día. Bendice estos alimentos y a quienes los cultivaron, prepararon y sirvieron. Acuérdate de quienes hoy pasan hambre o están solos. Consuela a quienes extrañan a un ser querido en su mesa y ayúdanos a abrir nuestro corazón y nuestro hogar a quienes más lo necesitan. Sobre todo, te damos gracias por tu Hijo, Jesucristo, que se entrega a nosotros en la Eucaristía. Que el amor que recibimos de él nos enseñe a perdonar de corazón, a compartir con generosidad y a servirnos unos a otros con alegría. Amén
