

2004

The Pittsburgh Pediatric Palliative Care Coalition (PPPCC) is formed under the leadership of Meghan O'Donnell, a bereaved mom and hospice social worker.

2009

Stakeholder groups from across PA combine efforts to form PPCC with Betsy Hawley named Executive Director.

2017

PPCC becomes a 501(c) (3) organization.

2022 - 2023

PPCC embarks on a capacity-building campaign to grow our organizational staff, financial resources and member engagement in order to provide enhanced resources and support for children, families and providers.

2007 - 2008

Through the efforts of the Pittsburgh Pediatric Palliative Care Coalition, Liam's Foundation for Pediatric Palliative Care and Helping Hands-Healing Hearts, the PA Dept of Public Welfare convenes the Pediatric Palliative and Hospice Care Task Force. One of the Task Force recommendations is to establish a statewide coalition.

2015

PPCC hosts its first statewide conference in Harrisburg, with 150+ healthcare and pediatric palliative care professionals in attendance.

2018 - 2021

Through generous grant funding, PPCC launches a new website, toolkits, the Lightning Bug app, Firefly Chats and the Pediatric Palliative Care Webinar Series, extending its reach to a national level.

2024 - 2026

PPCC expands to five staff members and broadens their webinar offerings that reach across the country, begins partnerships with other statewide organizations, and launches a Pennsylvania-based resource matching program.
