

Middle School Teacher

School Mission

Brooklyn Jesuit Prep is a Jesuit, Catholic middle school for students and families from underserved communities. The mission of the school is to break the cycle of poverty through education, employing a rigorous, well-rounded program with an extended school day, summer leadership camp, and robust graduate support program.

Role Description

The Middle School teacher will support our school's mission as a classroom leader and role model, unlocking the potential within our students as intellectual leaders and young men and women for others. This role entails teaching four periods per day in one or two of the following subjects, Math, Science, English, Social Studies and/or Art. This position also includes homeroom and extracurricular leadership during our extended day program, as well as other duties assigned by the principal.

Desired Qualifications

- Commitment to uplifting marginalized communities and a deep belief in the success of all students.
- Excellent organization and communication skills, specifically in the forms of planning and public speaking.
- Innovative: Experience utilizing diverse resources to develop dynamic lessons, assessments, and activities.
- Collaborative: Commitment to engage with faculty and parents to support individual student-needs/success.
- Tenacious; Self-Starter: Proven capacity to work independently toward setting and prioritizing goals.
- Bachelor's degree. Candidates will ideally bring 1-3 years of experience teaching in a middle school setting.
- Passion to empower students as young men and women for others, rooted in to our Five Jesuit School Principles: Open to Growth, Intellectually Competent, Loving, Faithful, and Committed to Doing Justice.

Essential Responsibilities

- Animate the mission of our school through all classes, activities, and interactions with students or parents.
- Teach four periods per day to grades 5th-8th.
- Participate in the daily life of the school through potential duties at recess, lunch, after school, etc.
- Propose and lead extracurricular sports or activities during our extended day.
- Potentially lead a homeroom class at the beginning and end of each day.

Start Date: August 24, 2026

Salary Range: $54,500-$67,000. Commensurate with years of experience in education or related field(s).

This position is a 10-month, in-person role. Benefits (401(k), medical, dental, vision) go into effect immediately. Fordham University offers a 50% tuition discount for advanced degrees to Brooklyn Jesuit Prep employees.

To Apply: Interested candidates should submit a cover letter, resume, and a list of three professional references to BJP's Principal, Ms. Maysa Antonio, at principal@brooklynjesuit.org. Qualified candidates will be contacted regarding next steps once all required application materials have been submitted. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled.

BJP is an Equal Opportunity Employer, has an institutional commitment to diversity, and encourages applications from people of all backgrounds. People of all faiths are encouraged to apply, but candidates must be comfortable with the Catholic tradition and faith-based education/activities that are central to the school's mission.