

Wren Nicolardi (any pronouns) Rivers to Ridges: Here is our first project together:
<https://southernlakescaribou.com/educators/>

Wren Nicolardi (any pronouns) Rivers to Ridges: Details, reports and media connected to many of these projects can be found online here: <https://www.respectcareshare.ca/portfolio>

Sydney Kuppenbender: Questions copper asks to prospective model partners: "what do you wish to obtain in your project? what do you wish to learn? How might Indigenous knowledge help your project?"

Wren Nicolardi (any pronouns) Rivers to Ridges: DUC recognized with Knowledge Braiders' Award for Indigenous collaboration on Yukon Wetland Field Guide.
<https://www.ducks.ca/news/national/duc-recognized-with-knowledge-braiders-award-for-indigenous-collaboration-on-yukon-wetland-field-guide/>

Wren Nicolardi (any pronouns) Rivers to Ridges: Where to find the DUC Field Guide:
<https://boreal.ducks.ca/publications/yukon-wetland-field-guide/>

Colin Arlt: Meeting with Sydney can be a life changing event

- Sydney Kuppenbender: hopefully in a good way for the most part
 - Colin Arlt: 110 percent changed my life in the most positive way
- Kristy Todd: I live down the road from Sydney but we have never met!

Meriya Gmeiner-McPherson (she/they): What is the name of that person again? The animal communicator?

- Wren Nicolardi (any pronouns) Rivers to Ridges: Was it MJ Barrett?
 - Meriya Gmeiner-McPherson (she/they): Someone from South Africa? I am not sure
 - Sarah Abbott: Anna Breytenbach in South Africa
 - Meriya Gmeiner-McPherson (she/they): Thank you!
 - Wren Nicolardi (any pronouns) Rivers to Ridges: Mahsi, Sarah! I was tending something else, and missed that.

Wren Nicolardi (any pronouns) Rivers to Ridges: Learn more about muktuk, and other country foods here:
<https://www.thecanadianencyclopedia.ca/en/article/country-food-inuit-food-in-canada>

Wren Nicolardi (any pronouns) Rivers to Ridges: An incredible human, and member of the team on this project: <https://katherinelawless.ca>

Katherine Lawless: It was really amazing!

Raelina: Are United Nations Declarations even being followed anymore and hold any reverence?

Wren Nicolardi (any pronouns) Rivers to Ridges: Copper has an incredible knowledge of families in Yukon Territory and beyond through family lineages!

Sydney Kuppenbender: Something that Copper often says, is "The reality is that the model work is before its time - meaning before western policy and legislation"

Kristin Walsh (she/her) - Sturgeon County: Unfortunately I have to go. Shaw Than/Maarsi for sharing these rich experiences!

Wren Nicolardi (any pronouns) Rivers to Ridges: The existing five LPRM Rules of Engagement are as follows:

1. Show respect for each other (including No Voice).
2. Feel as much as you think.
3. Listen to understand what is said.
4. Clarify what you say and hear.
5. Have patience.

Wren Nicolardi (any pronouns) Rivers to Ridges:
Breakout Room Instructions:

In your groups, you are expected to build on the existing rules of engagement to outline your expectations for conduct (yourself, your peers, and your facilitators) within the course.

The existing five LPRM Rules of Engagement are as follows:

1. Show respect for each other (including No Voice).
2. Feel as much as you think.
3. Listen to understand what is said.
4. Clarify what you say and hear.
5. Have patience.

First: Complete a round of brief introductions.

Next: Designate someone as a note taker + designate someone to report back to the entire group on what was discussed in your break out group.

Wren Nicolardi (any pronouns) Rivers to Ridges:

Note-taking Google Doc:

https://docs.google.com/document/d/1WEIII61PaTgE3fWCy1rIAktXI86iJW_80TsVcXFvRK4/edit?usp=sharing

Jac (They/She): What if we popped them into the chat instead?

- Wren Nicolardi (any pronouns) Rivers to Ridges: A great suggestion, Jac.

Donna Shiu: i have to skip out as I have another meeting. Mese

Ashley: Thank you Copper

Kristy Todd: Thanks everyone! Great session so much to think about and feel :)

Meriya Gmeiner-McPherson (she/they): Thank you!

Michelle Leona (She/They): Thank you everyone, Thank you Sydney, Wren, Copper.

Joanna Jack (she/her): Mahsi cho!

Jac (They/She): Marcee & Good night everyone!

Belit Peters: thank you for another great session!

Raphaëlle Dancette: Thanks a lot :) Mahsi

Meg Lalli (she/her): thanks so much everyone!