Chelan- Douglas Health District Youth Advisory Board

Join the Chelan- Douglas Youth Advisory Board (CDHDYAB):

CDHD is looking for dedicated, enthusiastic youth and young adults to represent our two counties. CDHD will provide opportunities to develop leadership skills through training and hands-on experience.

CDHDYAB Mission:

To strengthen the health of our community by partnering with youth who are dedicated to the health and safety of their community.

What does CDHDYAB do?

Members will meet regularly to share thoughts, discuss and make recommendations about adolescent health topics, and review existing programs and policies aimed at youth. Members review and give feedback on health material like flyers, surveys, projects/programs and webpages.

What are the CDHDYAB Goals?

- Identify challenges and barriers young people face accessing and using health care services and systems
- Identify health topics important to young people
- Share solutions and innovations needed to support youth to reach optimal health and wellbeing

Who should apply?

- Students grades 9-12 able to commit to once-a-month meetings during the school year
- Members will attend monthly meetings on Wednesdays from 4:00 – 5:00pm
- Students who are excited to make a difference in their community.
- Have an interest in developing leadership skills
- Have a positive attitude and a passion for learning
- Volunteer hours available for this upon request

Application checklist:

- ☐ Complete application
- ☐ Sign participant commitment pledge
- ☐ Obtain parental consent
- ☐ Obtain one complete reference form.
- ☐ Answer short answer questions
- ☐ Submit the application along with a completed reference form by April 1st, 2025 at 5:00 pm
