

Transition Services Community Listening Session

-hosted by the Transition Collaborative-

Please come share your perspectives and ideas to improve transition services for students as they move from school to adult life.

- When: Wednesday, April 22nd from 6:00 to 7:30
- Where: Zoom meeting online (registration required)
- Who: Students, family members and other advocates
- What: The Washington State Legislature passed a bill (Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill 5253: E2SSB 5253) telling several state agencies to update the plan for how to best help students with Individual Education Plans (IEPs) move from school to adult life.

Those state agencies are called the Transition Collaborative and include:

- Office of Superintendent for Public Instruction,
- Developmental Disabilities Community Services,
- Division of Vocational Rehabilitation,
- Department of Services for the Blind,
- Washington State Rehabilitation Council
- Washington State Developmental Disabilities Council.

You can find out more about the Transition Collaborative by visiting the Transition Collaborative Project website.

Your input at this event will help the Transition Collaborative write a report that is due to the Legislature in October 2026. We are looking for your recommendations to include in this plan. Listening sessions are being held from March through April with collaborators including students, families, advocates, educators, county developmental disabilities programs, employment service providers and tribes.
