

NextGen Synergy + Provider Associations

Co-Creating Capacity | Driving Innovation | Sustaining Community-Based Support

WHO WE ARE

NextGen Synergy is a nonprofit collaboration engine focused on expanding capacity to support people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) and co-occurring mental health conditions.

We are not a provider. We are not a provider association.

We exist to support the work of both — with tools, partnerships, and innovation infrastructure that drive sustainable solutions.

WHY PARTNER WITH NEXTGEN?

We know provider associations are facing historic challenges:

- Workforce shortages
- Rising costs
- Policy shifts with unclear operational supports
- Increasing behavioral complexity among people supported

You're leading the advocacy.

We support sustainability.

We work alongside associations — not in place of them — to help their members:

- Build clinical and workforce capacity to serve people with dual diagnoses
- Reduce system strain by helping people avoid unnecessary ER visits and hospitalizations
- Pilot and scale tech-based solutions that improve care and reduce long-term costs
- Co-create community-driven strategies that meet federal expectations and make sense locally

HOW WE WORK

- Cross-System Collaboration: We bring together IDD, BH, Medicaid, DSS, and more to build shared solutions
- Capacity-Building Tools: ECHO model training hubs, tech pilots, mentorship models
- Workforce Support: Custom training, trauma-informed practices, tech skill-building
- Innovation Implementation: Telebehavioral health, remote supports, digital planning tools
- Data-Informed Change: Community-led insights translated into scalable models

Let's talk about:

- Joint sustainability projects to support DSP retention and clinical integration
- Piloting community-based crisis supports that keep people out of institutions
- Creating statewide learning collaboratives to build capacity across members
