If there is any doubt about whether a particular conduct may violate this Policy, or if there are any questions about the application of the Policy, you should contact your manager for clarification.

5. Bribes and Facilitation Payments

It is prohibited to promise, offer, provide (or cause to be provided) any Bribe or Facilitation Payment, whether directly or indirectly, with the intention of securing business or a commercial advantage for the Company.

This prohibition applies to dealings with private and public businesses and individuals, as well as Public Officials.

Laws in relation to Bribery of Public Officials are especially strict. Consequently, dealings with Public Officials are particularly high risk, and extra care must be taken when dealing with Public Officials. Any Benefits (including Hospitality or Gifts) offered or provided to a Public Official must be in compliance with this Policy, and can only be made with the prior written approval from the Company's senior management (for further details see section 6.3 below).

There will be no penalty or adverse consequences for refusing to pay a Bribe or Facilitation Payment, even if it may result in the Company losing business.

6. Gifts and Hospitality

6.1 Guidelines for offering or accepting gifts and hospitality

Gifts and Hospitality offered by Directors, officers or employees for the purpose of establishing and strengthening business relationships are acceptable from a commercial perspective. This Policy does not prohibit Gifts and Hospitality being offered, given or accepted in good faith provided that:

- (a) it is not made/received in explicit or implicit exchange for favours or Benefits;
- (b) it complies with all relevant local laws;
- (c) it is given in the Company's name, not in the names of the Director/employee;
- (d) it does not include cash or a cash equivalent (e.g., cash cards, shopping gift cards, jewellery, etc.);
- (e) it is given or received openly, not secretly, and does not give rise to a perceived, potential or actual conflict of interest;
- (f) it could not be perceived as bringing the Company into disrepute;
- (g) a Director, officer or employee must be present for any Hospitality provided;
- (h) it is not given within three months prior to, or after, the completion of a competitive bid, tender exercise, contract negotiation or the like with the recipient;
- (i) it is not received by or given to the same person more than 4 times a year. Approval from the Company's senior management is required to exceed this limit; and
- (j) it is not given to a family member or extended family member of the person giving the Gift or Hospitality (e.g., a spouse, partner, child, grandparent, parent, sibling, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, grandchildren, first cousin; the spouse of any of the foregoing people; or, any other individuals who share the same household as you), unless approved by the Company's senior management in writing.

However, it becomes a criminal offence when such Gifts and Hospitality are offered in order influence the other party to obtain a Benefit. Agents are prohibited from offering any Gifts or Hospitality in connection with their services for, or on behalf of, the Company.

6.2 Gifts and Hospitality to Non-Public Officials

The financial thresholds and approval guidelines for giving and receiving Gifts and Hospitality to and from parties Non-Public Officials are as follows:

- (a) Gifts valued at AUD$250 or less may be received or given provided that the guidelines at section 6.1 are met;
- (b) Gifts valued at AUD$250 or more may only be received or given with the written approval of the Company's senior management, provided that the guidelines at section 6.1 are met;

- (c) Hospitality valued at AUD$500 or less may be received or given provided that the guidelines at section 6.1 are met;
- (d) Hospitality valued at AUD$500 or more may be received or given with the written approval of the Company's senior management, provided that the guidelines at section 6.1 are met; and
- (e) Gifts and/or Hospitality with a combined total value of more than AUD $1,000 per year from or to the same person or entity is not permitted, unless prior written approval from the Company's senior management is obtained to exceed this limit.

A request for written approval must be made in writing by completing and submitting the Gifts Hospitality & Donations Approval Form in Appendix B.

6.3 Gifts and Hospitality to Public Officials

Gifts and Hospitality provided to Public Officials attract additional risks for the Company. Written approval from Company's senior management must be obtained before giving Gifts or Hospitality of any value to a Public Official. Prior approval should be requested by completing the Gifts, Hospitality & Donations Approval Form provided in Appendix B. Pre-approvals must take into account any relevant local prohibitions or governmental policies against the receipt of Gifts or Hospitality by Public Officials.

All offers and acceptances of Gifts and Hospitality (to both Public Official and non-Public Officials) should be recorded in the Gifts and Hospitality Register and each entry must indicate whether the Gift or Hospitality was accepted or declined. Promotional items of a nominal value such as pens, drink bottles etc are exempt.

6.4 Gifts and Hospitality Register

Details of gifts and hospitality from current or potential suppliers or customers, which are accepted by Directors, officers or employees of Visionflex Group and which would reasonably be likely to exceed $250 in value must be advised to the Chief Financial Officer within 7 days of receipt. The Chief Financial Officer will maintain a register of these (including any provided to themselves) for a period of 5 years and make these available on request to members of the Board or Auditors.

7. Charitable and Political Donations

7.1 Charitable Donations

Charitable donations can be used as a form of Bribe. Therefore, charitable donations must not be made, offered or promised on behalf of the Company, without prior written approval from the Company's senior management by completing and submitting the Gifts, Hospitality & Donations Approval Form at Appendix B, and anti-bribery and corruption due diligence must be conducted on the recipient of the donation.

All charitable donations must:

- (a) be made only to not-for-profit organisations;
- (b) be accurately recorded in the Company's records;
- (c) be tax-deductible; and

(d) not be made in cash or to private accounts.

All approvals in relation to charitable donations, along with the relevant details of the donations, must be recorded in the donations register.

Personnel are permitted to make charitable donations in their personal capacity so long as they are not made in order to obtain or retain any business or business advantage.

7.2 Political Donations

Any financial or other support or assistance to, including a Gift made to or for the benefit of, political parties, political campaigns, individual politicians, government departments or administrative bodies on behalf of the Company can only be made with the prior written approval from the Company's senior management by completing the Gifts, Hospitality & Donations Form at Appendix B, and if the necessary limits on amounts and disclosure requirements are complied with.

A political donation includes payments such as memberships, entry fees and tables purchased at political fundraising events.

8. Engaging Agents

The Company could potentially become criminally liable and suffer damage to its reputation as a result of an act of Bribery by its Agents, regardless of whether or not the Company approved, or even had knowledge of, the Bribery. All Agents engaged by the Company must act with complete integrity and undertake their business without Bribery when providing services for or on behalf of the Company.

Any employee, Director or officer that deals with Agents is responsible for taking reasonable precautions to ensure that those Agents are ethical in their conduct of business and compliant with this Policy.

It is important for the Company to ensure that there is a clear business rationale for engaging an Agent and that a fulsome anti-bribery and corruption due diligence review of each Agent is undertaken prior to any engagement.

Payments to Agents may only be made upon the presentation of a valid invoice or statement that evidences the services were provided. Any commissions or service fees made to Agents should be comparable to the prevailing market rates for similar services and must be made by bank transfer into an account in the name of the Agent. All contracts with Agents must include anti-bribery clauses requiring the Agent to comply with all relevant anti-bribery legislation, to disclose any connections to Public Officials and Government Bodies, and to provide audit rights.

The offering or giving of Secret Commissions is prohibited. Likewise, the receipt of any Secret Commissions is also prohibited.

If there are any concerns or red flags about the conduct of Agents in their business dealings which may be contrary to this Policy, such concerns must be reported to the Company's senior management prior to proceeding or continuing with the engagement to ensure compliance with the applicable anti-bribery and corruption laws.

Some examples of red flags could include:

- (a) unusual or excessive payment requests, including upfront payments, suspicious commissions or payments into separate accounts in a country foreign to the nationality or business of that third party;
- (b) reluctance or refusal by that Agent to disclose the company's beneficial owners, partners or principals, or respond to anti-bribery due diligence questions;
- (c) the Agent has little experience in the industry but "knows the right people"; or
- (d) the Agent is, or is affiliated to, a Government Body or Public Official.

Upon receiving a report, the Company shall conduct relevant investigations and may suspend further payments to the Agent pending the outcome of that investigation.

9. Personal Safety Exception

A person will not be in breach of this Policy if a payment or Benefit is provided to a Public Official or another party, due to an imminent risk of serious physical harm.

Where a payment or Benefit is provided under such circumstances, that person must promptly report the payment or Benefit made to the Company's senior management and set out the full circumstances of that payment (including the value of the payment, the recipient and the nature of the threat).

10. Compliance and Reporting

10.1 Compliance and disclosure

Personnel must read, understand and comply with this Policy and they will be required to ensure they avoid any actions that may lead to or suggest a violation of this Policy.

Personnel must complete and sign the Policy Acknowledgment and Commitment Statement when they first receive this Policy and on an annual basis thereafter (provided in Appendix A), which confirms their commitment to comply with this Policy.

Regular communication and awareness reminders (e.g., at team meetings or via email) will be used to reinforce understanding of this Policy.

Given the stringent anti-bribery and corruption laws in respect of dealing with Public Officials, employees, Directors and officers must disclose in writing to the Company's senior management whether they, or any of their family members up to a second degree (which includes a spouse or companion, children or step-children, grandchildren, parents, grandparents, siblings and half siblings, uncles, aunts, nephews, and nieces) are current or former Public Officials.

11. Reporting and Consequences of a Breach of this Policy

Personnel that becomes aware of or suspects the Policy has been breached by any person acting for or representing the Company, must report the known or suspected breach to the Company's senior management and include the basis for their suspicion and/or knowledge. Reports may be made confidentially and on an anonymous basis. Please refer to the Whistleblower Policy for more details.

Personnel in breach of this Policy or who fails to report known or suspected breaches of the Policy will face disciplinary action, which may result in dismissal for misconduct. Personnel in breach of this Policy may also face legal proceedings and be subject to investigations by the relevant government authorities.

The Board will be informed of any material breaches under this Policy.

12. Review of Policy

The Anti-Bribery and Corruption policy will be reviewed at least every two years, or more frequently if required by changes in law, regulation, or the Company's operations. The latest version of this policy can be found on the Company's website or obtained from the Company Secretary.
