- Correction: The right to request that we correct inaccuracies in the personal data we maintain about you, taking into account the nature of the personal data and the purposes of processing.
- Deletion: The right to request that we delete personal data we have collected from or obtained about you, subject to certain exceptions permitted by applicable law.
- Data Portability: The right to obtain a copy of your personal data that you previously provided to us in a portable and, to the extent technically feasible, readily usable format that allows you to transmit the data to another entity without hindrance.

- Opt-Out of Profiling: Texas and Nebraska residents have the right to opt out of profiling in furtherance of a decision that produces a legal or similarly significant effect.

Please note that not all individuals are eligible to submit all request types. Additionally, we only use and disclose Sensitive Personal Information for purposes permitted by the CCPA and its implementing regulations, such as to perform the services or provide the goods you request, to ensure security and integrity, to prevent and detect fraud, and for other purposes described in 11 CCR § 7027(m). We do not use your Sensitive Personal Information to infer characteristics about you. Because our use of Sensitive Personal Information is limited to these permitted purposes, we are not required to offer a "Limit the Use of My Sensitive Personal Information" option, and no such option is provided on this form. What Happens Next?

After you submit your request, we will verify your identity using commercially reasonable methods. Please note that the level of verification required may vary depending on the type of request and the sensitivity of the personal data involved. Under the CCPA and its implementing regulations (11 CCR § 7060), sensitive personal information warrants a more stringent verification process, and requests to know specific pieces of personal information require verification to a reasonably high degree of certainty, which may include matching at least three data points and a signed declaration under penalty of perjury. Requests involving deletion or correction of sensitive personal data may also require a higher degree of verification depending on the risk of harm posed by unauthorized access. We may request additional information from you as reasonably necessary to verify your identity and process your request. We will acknowledge your request to delete, correct, or know within 10 business days and respond within 45 calendar days of receipt. If reasonably necessary, we may extend this period by an additional 45 calendar days (for a maximum of 90 days total), in which case we will notify you of the extension and the reason for the delay within the initial 45-day period. For requests to opt out of the sale or sharing of your personal information, we will comply within 15 business days.

If we deny your request in whole or in part, we will provide a detailed explanation of the basis for the denial and, where applicable, provide any personal information that is not subject to an exception. You may appeal our decision within a reasonable amount of time after receiving our denial by responding directly to the communication denying your request or by submitting your appeal to privacy@equipmentshare.com. Upon receipt of your appeal, we will respond in writing of any action taken or not taken within 60 days after receipt. If we deny your appeal, we will provide you with an online mechanism through which you may contact the Nebraska or Texas Attorney General.
