About Colchester

Britain's oldest recorded town, and a wonderful place for a family holiday.

Colchester mixes 2,000 years of history with everything a modern family needs. It is small enough to walk everywhere, yet London is less than an hour away.

45 minutes to London

Fast, direct trains to the capital

40 minutes from Stansted

London Stansted Airport is close by

Britain's oldest recorded town

Roman walls and a Norman castle to explore

Safe for families

A friendly city where children feel at home

A traditional British city

Historic streets, markets, cafés and parks

Everything within walking distance

School, Ryegate House, shops and Castle Park
