NEWS HIGHLIGHT

As we continue our Being Human series, I'm delighted that we'll welcome the Rev'd Dr Rhys Bezzant to St Bart's over the next two weeks (i.e., August 20 & 27). Rhys is Dean of the Anglican Institute at Ridley College in Melbourne and teaches in the areas of church history, theology, and Christian worship. Rhys will be speaking on both the relational and sexual aspects of 'being human'.

Exploring Vocations Dinner. God calls every Christian to take their part in the building of his church and in the mission of God in the world. This involves a wide range of ministries and missional contexts. God also calls some people to particular ministries within the church—both lay and ordained—in specialist areas (e.g., youth, children, pastoral care, discipleship, evangelism), chaplaincy, local church leadership (e.g., priest), church planting, and missionaries. Do you think God might be calling you?

If you have considered or are considering ministries such as these, please join us for a dinner at St Bart's on Monday, August 21 (7-9PM) with Rhys Bezzant as a special guest. Cost is $20. Register:
