

Faith, Hope, and Love

The Reality of Hope

A healthy church requires three elements/virtues to be in abundance: Faith, Hope, and Love.

Faith believes

Hope looks forward

Love lives out

Faith, hope, and love all go together because it is the Spirit-filled life.

Your salvation is more valuable than gold and its value takes you all the way to seeing Jesus!

The nature of hope is to expect what faith believes.

- Your hope begins with spiritual re-birth.
- Your hope grows in understanding God's promises.
- Your hope is proven through trials and temptations.
- Your mature hope holds fast to the resurrection.

- Hope says, “My future is as bright as the promises of God!”
- The sooner a Christian understands where their true hope lies, the sooner their life will be salt and light for the world.
- God’s will be done on earth as it is in heaven!

Questions for the road:

- As you are growing older, what are you looking forward to?
- As you reflect on your life, are there things you had placed your hope in that turned out to be false gold?
- Today, is there anything you are putting your hope in that you know must come to an end? What does God want you to do?
- As you consider Christ’s resurrection and His promise to you that He will raise you from the dead, what stirs within your heart?
