Notes

Discussion Questions:

1. What overarching theme about relationships had stood out most from this series?
2. What process did the panel offer for problem-solving? What did you find most helpful about that process? What would be the most challenging when applied to your own relationships?
3. Which insight or story from the panel impacted you the most—and why?
4. How is God inviting you to grow or adjust in how you relate to others?
5. What's one practical step you can take this week toward healthier, Christ-centered relationships?
