The Unique Guest List: An insincere invitation.

- Am I willing to give of myself for the benefit of others?

The Trap: Testing the tradition, not the law.

- Am I willing to serve knowing it will cost me?

The Challenge: Pride is destructive and defiles your belief.

- What stops me from living with open hands and a pure heart?

The Parable: Craved status will become your shame.

- What drives your pride? What limits your humility?

The Lesson: Start humble or end humbled.

- When humility is our starting place, the ending place is certain. God loves to lift those who are of genuine humility.
