When God leads His people into uncharted seasons, the courageously obedient experience His comforting protection and consistent provision.

Scouting Out Canaan

Lessons from the Wilderness

- Where God leads His people, courage is often required. (13:17-21)
- Biblical courage is not foolish ignorance, but a faithful response to the Lord's direction. (14:5-9)
- A fearful response will always lead away from God's protection and provision. (13:31-14:4; 14:39-45)

Cowardice, Complaint, or Courageous Obedience?

Guiding Principles for Uncharted Seasons

- In uncharted seasons, the potential of pain, loss, and discomfort (sacrifice) can cause us to question God's plan, doubt His providence, cower in fear, and complain just like the Israelites. (Hebrews 3:7-14)
- Jesus provides a better example, entrusting Himself to the Father's will in the face of pain, loss, and discomfort. (Matthew 26:36-39,42; 1 Peter 2:23)
- The Gospel should inspire the same confidence and response in us. (Romans 8:31-32, 38-39; Galatians 2:20-21; James 4:13-15)

Discussion Questions:

1. Looking back at Numbers 13 & 14, what stands out to you? What do we learn about God? What warnings and/or guidance does it offer us?
2. When facing an unexpected change, prolonged hardship, or a daunting obstacle, why do we so easily respond with fear or frustration? What do you think is going on in our hearts when this is our response?
3. What stands out to you from Christ's example of complete trust and courageous obedience? What would it look like for you to follow this example with the challenges you're facing in this season?
4. As a group, look again at verses 13:31-33 and 14:8-9. In this season, when our church is moving towards three services, why is it important for us to collectively focus on "He" rather than the "we"?
