Health & Wellbeing in Schools

PSHE Education Consultancy

Health & Wellbeing in Schools Ltd offers a broad range of high-quality, specialist support around the health and wellbeing practice of schools, particularly in relation to Personal, Social, Health & Economic (PSHE) education.

Our support is designed to empower effective delivery and enable best practice in PSHE education, especially around statutory RSHE (Relationships, Sex & Health Education). This support is provided through a combination of consultancy advice, professional development, training and curriculum development to suit your individual school.

We are passionate about supporting schools, professionals and young people. Fundamentally, we know that a whole-school approach to improving the personal development, health and wellbeing of your school community will have a positive impact on wider school improvement and mean improved outcomes for children and young people. We can offer you the additional capacity and specialist experience to help you achieve this.

Schools can select from a range of online consultancy support including:

- A PSHE subject audit to benchmark your provision and plan for improvement
- A PSHE curriculum review to ensure compliance with statutory RSHE requirements
- Signposting to appropriate curriculum resources to ensure best practice and support in mapping these into your provision
- Support to develop the role, effectiveness and impact of the PSHE subject lead in school
- Inset/twilight training for staff and governors on PSHE related themes
- An online training and professional development programme
- Policy review and development (E.g. RSE, Anti-Bullying, PSHE, Drug Education)
- Parent /community engagement workshops, advice and support on PSHE related themes

Further services and bespoke support around PSHE/RSHE related themes can be provided upon request.

Benefits to schools

- Direct, specialist support from a dedicated advisor allocated to your school
- High-quality advice, guidance and consultancy support to senior leadership teams, governing boards and teachers around PSHE/RSHE themes
- Advice on effective PSHE/RSHE planning, including guidance on curriculum materials and resources to enable schools to offer a comprehensive and broad programme
- Ensure best practice and compliance on statutory and non-statutory policies within PSHE/RSHE related themes
- High-quality professional development opportunities to improve delivery of PSHE/RSHE and upskill the school workforce
- Reliable advice and support around statutory Relationships, Sex & Health Education and evidencing the links between PSHE and successful Ofsted outcomes, particularly around Personal Development & Wellbeing.

Schools can select from a range of support packages and prices to meet their needs.

Schools can access a free, no obligation 30-minute PSHE consultation meeting with an advisor from Health & Wellbeing in Schools to discuss requirements*.
