GROWTH OF A $10,000 INVESTMENT (INSTITUTIONAL CLASS, SINCE INCEPTION)

For illustrative and discussion purposes only.

A hypothetical $10,000 investment in the Fund's Class I shares on 11/15/07 would have been worth $24,986 on 3/31/2026 net of fee. Assumes reinvestment of dividends and capital gains.

<sup>1</sup>Returns for periods less than one year are aggregate and returns for periods more than one year are annualized. The performance quoted reflects fee waivers in effect, and would have been lower in their absence. The performance data quoted represents past performance and is not indicative of future results. Current performance may be lower or higher. Performance data current to the most recent month-end may be obtained at wilshire.com. The investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original costs.

Hypothetical results, including ones regarding hypothetical illustrative portfolios, should not be relied upon and have inherent limitations, some of which are described herein, including that they do not reflect a client's actual trading or investment considerations (such as liquidity needs or tax consequences) and therefore do not reflect the impact that economic and market factors, including concentration, lack of liquidity or market disruptions, may have on investment decisions for such client or an account. In fact, there may be sharp differences between the Strategy or other hypothetical results and the actual results that a client may achieve. Because the Strategy account is unfunded, the amount of a client's assets at any time also may have a different impact on the management of its account. No representation is made that a client's performance or portfolio would have been the same as the Strategy or any hypothetical portfolio had such client account been in existence during such time. To the extent there are any material differences between Wilshire's management of a client account and the Strategy, the Strategy performance results are not as representative, and their illustration value is decreased substantially.
