Bear Me Into Freedom

A 60-minute immersive experience portraying the odyssey of Frederick Douglass—his birth and enslavement on the Eastern Shore, his life's work championing abolition, emancipation, and equal rights throughout the United States, and his triumphal return as one of the most consequential figures of the 19th century.

VIEW THE TRAILER

In a little less than four years after becoming a public lecturer, I was induced to write out the leading facts connected with my experience in slavery, giving names of persons, places, and dates.
