

Tailor-Made Itinerary – Florian

Introduction

Did you know that Argentina is home to the southernmost city in the world, Ushuaia, known as the "End of the World"? This land of contrasts offers everything from vibrant city life to untamed wilderness. This program is crafted for a solo traveler seeking luxury and authenticity, with a preferred departure in November 2025 and a budget of 3000 euros. The itinerary below is crafted with expert logistics and luxury standards, fully customizable to your needs.

Why Argentina?

Argentina is a dream destination for solo travelers who crave both adventure and comfort. November is springtime in Argentina, offering mild weather and blooming landscapes—ideal for exploring Patagonia's glaciers, the wine country of Mendoza, or the cosmopolitan energy of Buenos Aires. The country's excellent infrastructure makes solo travel seamless, while its luxury hotels and world-class gastronomy ensure a refined experience. Whether you seek urban culture or breathtaking nature, Argentina is perfectly suited to your preferences.

Custom Program

Note: The following program assumes a 10-day trip, which is typical for a first discovery of Argentina with a focus on luxury and highlights. Dates and duration can be adjusted as needed.

Day 1: Arrival in Buenos Aires

- Morning: International arrival at Ezeiza Airport. Private transfer (45 min) to your luxury hotel in Recoleta or Palermo. Early check-in subject to availability.
- Afternoon: Rest and settle in. Option for a private guided walk through the leafy streets of Recoleta, visiting the famous cemetery and elegant cafés.
- Evening: Gourmet welcome dinner at a top Buenos Aires restaurant, with wine pairing.
- Highlight: Personalized welcome and first taste of Argentine hospitality.
- Hotel options:
  - Alvear Palace Hotel (Luxury, Recoleta): Belle Époque grandeur, impeccable service, and a rooftop spa. From €350/night.

  - Legado Mitico (Boutique, Palermo Soho): Stylish, intimate, themed rooms inspired by Argentine icons. From €220/night.
- Activity: Private guided walk in Recoleta: Discover the iconic cemetery, Belle Époque architecture, and local cafés with a knowledgeable guide.

TIP: Buenos Aires is cosmopolitan, but pickpocketing can occur in busy areas—keep valuables secure.

Day 2: Buenos Aires – City & Tango

- Morning: Private city tour with an English-speaking guide: Plaza de Mayo, San Telmo, La Boca, and Puerto Madero. Private vehicle (4h).
- Afternoon: Leisure time for art galleries or shopping. Optional visit to MALBA (Latin American Art Museum).
- Evening: VIP tango show and dinner at a renowned venue, with backstage access.
- Highlight: Immersive tango experience in true Buenos Aires style.
- Same hotel options as Day 1.
- Activity: Tango show at Rojo Tango (Faena Hotel): Intimate, glamorous performance with gourmet dinner and backstage meet-and-greet.

TIP: Dress smart-casual for tango venues; some have a formal dress code.

Day 3: Buenos Aires to El Calafate (Patagonia)

- Morning: Private transfer to airport (45 min). Direct flight to El Calafate (3h).
- Afternoon: Arrival and private transfer (40 min) to a luxury lodge overlooking Lago Argentino.

- Evening: Relax at the hotel spa or enjoy Patagonian cuisine with lake views.
- Highlight: First glimpse of Patagonia's wild landscapes in comfort.
- Hotel options:
  - Eolo Patagonia Spirit (Luxury, countryside): Remote, serene, panoramic views, gourmet cuisine. From €600/night.
  - Los Ponchos Boutique Hotel (Boutique, lakeside): Artistic design, warm hospitality, lake and mountain views. From €250/night.
  - Estancia Cristina (Eco-lodge, remote): Historic ranch, exclusive excursions, glacier access. From €400/night.
- Activity: Spa session at Eolo: Unwind with Patagonian-inspired treatments and panoramic views of the steppe.

TIP: Weather in Patagonia is unpredictable—pack layers and windproof clothing.

Day 4: Perito Moreno Glacier

- Morning: Private excursion (4×4, 1.5h each way) to Perito Moreno Glacier. Guided walk along panoramic balconies.
- Afternoon: Optional mini-trekking on the glacier (with specialist guides; moderate fitness required), or boat navigation close to the ice wall.

- Evening: Return to lodge. Optional Patagonian lamb dinner.
- Highlight: Awe-inspiring glacier experience, tailored for solo travelers.
- Same hotel options as Day 3.
- Activity: Mini-trekking on Perito Moreno Glacier: Walk on ancient ice with expert guides, marvel at crevasses and blue caves.

TIP: Glacier excursions require sturdy shoes and sunglasses; bring cash for park entry fees.

Day 5: El Calafate to Buenos Aires

- Morning: Leisure at the lodge or optional visit to a Patagonian estancia (ranch) for a taste of rural life. Private transfer (30–60 min).
- Afternoon: Private transfer to airport (40 min). Flight to Buenos Aires (3h).
- Evening: Check into luxury hotel. Evening at leisure or rooftop cocktail with city views.
- Highlight: Contrasts between wild Patagonia and urban sophistication.
- Same hotel options as Day 1.
- Activity: Visit to Estancia Nibepo Aike: Authentic ranch experience, horseback riding, and traditional barbecue lunch.

TIP: Domestic flights in Argentina allow 15–23 kg checked luggage; excess charges apply for overweight bags.

Day 6: Buenos Aires to Mendoza (Wine Country)

- Morning: Private transfer to airport (45 min). Flight to Mendoza (2h).
- Afternoon: Arrival and private transfer (30–60 min) to a luxury wine lodge in the vineyards.
- Evening: Wine tasting and gourmet dinner at the lodge.
- Highlight: Sunset over the Andes with a glass of Malbec.
