From the Desk of Fr. Keith Romke

Dearest Brothers and Sisters,

Ever felt in life that everything is too heavy and like it's all too much? When the stress, health challenges, grief, and even just the hectic and chaotic pace of daily life seems unsustainable? In these moments, when we think to ourselves: "I can't hold it all together," Jesus whispers back to us "You don't have to!" Jesus never asked us to carry life on our own. Which is why he tells us "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest... For my yoke is easy, and my burden light." When you feel like you're unraveling, Jesus is not watching from a distance. He is reaching out, holding you tenderly and without judgment. He doesn't need you to be perfect. He doesn't expect you to have all the answers. He just wants your yes and your willingness to lean on Him.

Our strength is not in our ability to control everything, but in our willingness to surrender. Think of our very own St. Peter, who began to sink when he took his eyes off Jesus in the storm. Even in his fear and failure, Jesus immediately reached out His hand and caught him. Jesus didn't wait for Peter to swim back or pull himself together. He held him. That same Jesus holds us. This week, if you're feeling overwhelmed, take a moment in prayer and say simply: "Jesus, I can't hold it all. But I trust that You are holding me." Even when life feels out of control, you are never out of His hands.

God Bless you,

Fr. Romke
