From the Desk of Fr. Keith Romke

Dearest Brothers and Sisters,

One of my favorite sections of the Bible comes from Ezekiel 36: 24-27 which says: “I will take you away from among the nations, gather you from all the lands, and bring you back to your own soil. I will sprinkle clean water over you to make you clean; from all your impurities and from all your idols I will cleanse you. I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. I will put my spirit within you so that you walk in my statutes, observe my ordinances, and keep them.” The Lord recently put this back upon my heart to pray through, and I’m glad that He did (He’s pretty good at knowing exactly what I need at just the right time, and hopefully you know that He’s really good, capable, and willing to do so for you too!)

He promises to cleanse us from our idols: I’m guessing we don’t often think of ourselves as having idols, because we don’t worship or bow down to statues or anything like that. But are we willing to consider if there are things that draw us away from relying and depending on God? And perhaps have we made attempts to pull back and change ourselves without the success that we so desperately want? If so, we’re blessed to hear God say that HE will cleanse us of these idols! Perhaps the reason why we’ve struggled to return to Him with our whole hearts is that we’ve been trying to fix ourselves rather than giving Him permission to be our Savior!

On top of this, God promises more as He says: “I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you.” The people of Israel were tired, discouraged, and far from where they needed to be, but instead of scolding them, God promised to restore them. He said He would take away their “heart of stone” and replace it with a heart that’s alive and responsive. It’s a reminder that God isn’t waiting for us to have everything figured out before He steps in. He’s the one who does the renewing, sometimes in ways we don’t even notice at first. A “heart of flesh” simply means a heart that feels again, a heart that is open to joy, compassion, and hope.

If you’ve been feeling spiritually stuck, I invite you to openly, humbly, and honestly reflect with God upon these words of scripture. Accept this invitation to let God do what He’s best at: breathing new life into tired hearts. Maybe this week, your prayer can be simple:

“Lord, help me feel again.”

God Bless you,

Fr. Romke
