From the Desk of Fr. Keith Romke

Dearest Brothers and Sisters,

This past Wednesday, October 7, the Church celebrated the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary. October itself is traditionally a month in which the Church encourages us to rediscover this beautiful prayer, and I think there is a very simple image that can help us understand what a gift the Rosary really is. Think for a moment about what happens when a small child is walking somewhere unfamiliar with his or her mother. The child reaches up and takes Mom's hand. Holding her hand doesn't mean that the road suddenly becomes shorter. It doesn't mean there won't be hills to climb, puddles to step around, or moments when the child becomes tired. But there is something different about walking that road when you know you are not walking it alone. I think that is a beautiful way to think about the Rosary. When we pick up a Rosary and wrap those beads around our fingers, in a very real spiritual sense, we are reaching out and taking the hand of our Blessed Mother. And then Mary does what every good mother does: she walks with us and leads us where we need to go. Most importantly, she always leads us to her Son.

That is really what the Rosary is. Sometimes people misunderstand it as simply saying fifty-three Hail Marys, an Our Father here and there, and trying not to lose count. But the heart of the Rosary is Jesus. Through the mysteries, Mary takes us by the hand and walks us through the life of her Son. We stand with her at the Annunciation. We travel with her to Bethlehem. We watch Jesus teach and heal. We accompany Him through His suffering and death. And finally, we rejoice with Mary in the victory of the Resurrection. In other words, when we pray the Rosary, Mary is saying to us, "Come with me. Let me show you my Son."

And there are times in life when we especially need to hold her hand. There are roads that all of us would rather not walk. There are moments of uncertainty when we don't know what comes next. There are times of grief, illness, disappointment, loneliness, anxiety, or fear. There are decisions we don't know how to make and situations we cannot fix. Sometimes we don't even know what to say to God. Those are wonderful moments simply to reach into our pocket, pick up the Rosary, and hold on. We don't even have to pray it perfectly. Our minds may wander. We may get distracted. We may lose track of which Hail Mary we're on. We may even fall asleep before we finish. That's okay. The important thing is that we are turning toward God and allowing Mary to accompany us.

I would encourage you during this month of October to make the Rosary a more regular part of your life. If you don't currently pray it, don't worry about suddenly becoming someone who prays all five decades every single day. Start somewhere. Pray one decade in the car. Pray while taking a walk. Pray with your spouse or children before bed. Keep a Rosary in your pocket and simply hold it when you need to be reminded that you are not alone. Life takes us down many roads. Some are beautiful. Some are difficult. Some are roads we never expected to travel. But we never have to walk them by ourselves. So when the road becomes difficult, or even when life is going wonderfully, reach for your Rosary. Wrap those beads around your fingers. Take Mary's hand. And let our Mother walk with you, always leading you closer to her Son.

God Bless you,

Fr. Romke

Spiritual Warfare: Confronting the Darkness of our Age
Horror movies, New Age practices, and occult trends are everywhere. It gets marketed as "harmless fun," but treating the spiritual world like a game leaves us anxious, distracted, and numb to the truth. Whether you want to strengthen your faith or are just trying to navigate the noise, this talk is designed to help you recognize these subtle influences and equip you with the practical tools to fight back. Discover the enemy's hidden traps, reclaim your true identity in Christ, and learn why turning to Mary is the ultimate way to keep your eyes fixed on Jesus. Presented by Sr. M. Gabriela Maldonado, SCMC.

High School Girls' Fellowship with Sr. Gabriela

High school girls are invited to join us for dinner and fellowship with Sr. Gabriela Maldonado. If you've ever wondered what life as a religious sister is like, this is a wonderful opportunity to meet Sr. Gabriela, hear her story, and ask questions in a relaxed setting. You don't need to be discerning a vocation to come—just bring your questions, your curiosity, and a willingness to share an evening together. Come enjoy a fun evening of food, faith, fellowship, and conversation with other young women!

Married couples, this Ministry is for YOU!

Our new Marriage Ministry is hosting a series of conversations that you don't want to miss! This is not couples' therapy. Instead, it is an opportunity to build community, celebrate joys, support one another through challenges, and dig deeper into the amazing things our Church wants for us as couples. There is no "perfect" couple or "perfect" marriage, but a strong marriage supports all other areas of life. All SSPP couples welcome! Visit ssppcary.org for more information and to register!

Fast & Abstinence

By Deacon Robert Buerer

Wait, is abstinence still “a thing”? I thought after Vatican II we could eat meat again on Fridays? While it is true that the Universal Church used abstaining from eating meat on Fridays as a penitential act, after Vatican II (in 1966), the Universal Church changed the rule – for those who wish to go further, please look into the apostolic constitution Paenitemini issued by Pope St. Paul VI in 1966. The fact remains, however, that “all Fridays through the year and the time of Lent are penitential days and times throughout the entire Church” (see Canon 1250); and under Canon 1251, abstinence from meat (or another food determined by the Bishops) is to be observed on all Fridays unless a solemnity falls on a Friday. If you wish to know what our “local Bishops”, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), declared I refer you to their “1966 Pastoral Statement on Penance and Abstinence”.

The purpose of this little treatise, however, is not fundamentally catechetical, but rather, that it be an encouragement to once again, if we’ve lapsed, begin to fast and abstain anew!

Having briefly addressed abstinence, let us then turn to scripture to see what our Lord had to say about fasting:

“And He (Jesus) said to them, “This kind (of demon) cannot be driven out by anything but prayer and fasting.” (Mark 9:29)

This happened right after Jesus along with Peter, James and John came down the mountain following the Transfiguration and His disciples were unable to cast out a “mute spirit” who was tormenting a boy. Since angels, the good and the bad ones, are immortal, they can still pester us today. Although few are tormented like this boy, their influence can disturb our spirit, cause us to lose our peace, which in turn can lead us to sin. Prayer and fasting are the remedy for such as these.

Let us now turn to one of the Great Saints of the Church, Saint Basil whose feast day is on January 2. Saint Basil is reported to have said:

Fasting gives birth to prophets and strengthens the powerful; fasting makes lawgivers wise. Fasting is a good safeguard for the soul, a steadfast companion for the body, a weapon for the valiant, and a gymnasium for athletes. Fasting repels temptations, anoints unto piety; it is the comrade of watchfulness and the artificer of chastity. In war it fights bravely, in peace it teaches stillness.

What further reasons might we need to fast?!

So, let us not set aside these great spiritual tools of fasting and abstinence, but rather put them into practice, or if already doing so, increase our fervent use of them!

One opportunity to put fasting into practice is the 34th Annual Week of Prayer & Fasting coming up this November 14-22, 2026 (IWOPF.org). Please prayerfully consider participating.

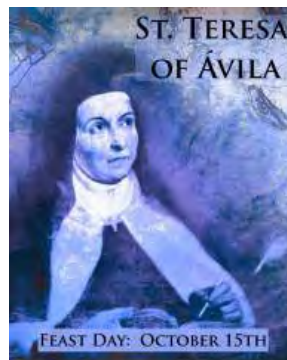

Your brother in Christ,
Deacon Bob

St. Teresa of Ávila / St. Teresa of Jesus

“Let nothing disturb you, let nothing frighten you.

All things pass. God does not change. Patience achieves everything.”

St. Teresa of Ávila (1515-1582) was a Spanish Carmelite nun who lived in the 16th century. She was a mystic and author of spiritual writings and poems. The originator of the Carmelite Reform, she founded numerous convents throughout Spain and restored the order's contemplative life. She became well known for the mystical experiences, many of which she described in her autobiography.

The first of only four women to be named a Doctor of the Church, St. Teresa's ascetic doctrine and Carmelite reforms shaped Roman Catholic contemplative life, and her writings on the Christian soul's journey to God are considered works of art. Her writings, especially the “Way of Perfection” and “The Interior Castle,” have helped generations of believers.

St. Teresa of Avila died on Oct. 15, 1582. She was canonized on March 22, 1622, along with three of her greatest contemporaries: St. Ignatius Loyola, St. Francis Xavier, and St. Philip Neri.

St. Teresa of Ávila, pray for us!

Marriage is a beautiful vocation, but it was never meant to be lived out alone. In the busyness of everyday life, it can be easy for husbands and wives to become focused on work, children, schedules, and responsibilities and forget to make time to nurture the relationship at the heart of their family.

Our new Marriage Ministry is designed to encourage and support couples as they live out their vocation of marriage. We believe strong marriages strengthen families, strengthen our parish, and help build a stronger community of faith.

Having other married couples walking alongside us can make a tremendous difference. When couples have a community where they can share experiences, learn from one another, laugh together, and encourage each other through both the joys and challenges of married life, they are reminded that they are not alone. Sometimes, simply hearing another couple say, "We've been there, too," can be a great source of encouragement.

We are beginning our Marriage Ministry with Marriage Conversations, an opportunity for couples to gather, connect with other married couples, and have meaningful conversations about their marriage and their vocation. There will be opportunities for larger group gatherings, smaller conversations, and continued conversation between spouses.

You don't have to be struggling in your marriage to participate. Whether you have been married for six months or sixty years, there is always an opportunity to grow in love, strengthen your relationship, and learn from other couples.

We invite all married couples of Ss. Peter & Paul to sign up for Marriage Conversations and become part of a community that supports, encourages, and celebrates marriage! Click/scan the QR code to register or visit ssppcary.org.
