From the Desk of Fr. Keith Romke

Dearest Brothers and Sisters,

Have you ever stopped to think about what an incredible gift it is that you have faith? I think sometimes we can take it for granted. We go to Mass, we pray, we celebrate the sacraments, and we try to live as followers of Jesus. But how often do we stop and consider how different our lives would be if we didn't know Him? If we didn't know that we have a God who loves us unconditionally, who forgives us when we fall, who walks with us through our struggles, and who promises us that death does not have the final word?

What an extraordinary gift we have been given! Our faith doesn't mean that life is always easy or that we will never experience suffering, uncertainty, or heartbreak. But it means that we never have to face any of those things alone. It means that even in our darkest moments, we have a reason to hope. We know that our lives have meaning, that we are loved beyond anything we could ever imagine, and that we were created for something greater than this world alone.

And here's something else worth thinking about: How did that gift of faith come into your life? Certainly, faith is a gift from God, but very often God chooses to give us that gift through other people. Maybe it was your mother or father who taught you how to pray. Maybe it was a grandparent who brought you to Mass or whose quiet example showed you what it meant to trust in God. Maybe it was a priest, a teacher, a spouse, or a friend who helped you encounter Jesus in a way that changed your life. Perhaps it was someone who stood by you during a difficult time and helped you recognize that God had never abandoned you.

I know that when I look back on my own life, I can see so many people whom God placed along my path who helped me grow closer to Him. Some probably knew the impact they were making, but I suspect many had absolutely no idea. And that's one of the beautiful things about faith. We don't always realize how much our example, our encouragement, or even a simple conversation can change someone else's life.

So I'd like to invite you to do something this week. Think of the person who has had the most life-giving impact on your relationship with God, and thank them. Don't just think about how grateful you are. Actually tell them! Give them a call, send them a message, write them a letter, or sit down with them and let them know what their example has meant to you. Tell them how they helped you come to know God's love more deeply. And if that person has already gone home to the Lord, take a moment to thank God for their life and offer a prayer for them.

Just imagine what it would mean to receive a message from someone saying, "I don't know if you realize this, but my relationship with God is stronger because of you." What a beautiful thing to hear! And what a wonderful reminder that the way we live our faith truly matters.

And perhaps that's the final thought I'd like to leave you with. As we give thanks for those who have helped bring us closer to God, let's also ask ourselves: Whose life am I helping to bring closer to Him? Because the gift of faith was never meant to stop with us. It was given to us so that it could be lived, shared, and passed on.

One of the greatest gifts anyone has ever given you may very well be the gift of helping you know Jesus. And one of the greatest gifts you will ever give someone else is helping them know Him too.

God bless you,
Fr. Romke

The Precepts of the Catholic Church

By Deacon Bob Buerer

Have you ever wondered what is required of us Catholics to remain in full communion with the Church? Do you faithfully practice the precepts of the Catholic Church? Are you now asking yourself, what are the precepts of the Catholic Church?

From time to time, we clergy get asked various questions from among the faithful and from among those who are seeking the truth or at least are curious about what the Catholic Church teaches, some of the answers to these questions can be found in what follows.

So, what are precepts?

One definition is as follows:

Precepts, as they pertain to the Catholic Church, are positive laws that define the absolute minimum actions required of the faithful regarding prayer, the liturgy, and moral life to remain in full communion with the Church.

So, what constitutes remaining in full communion with Catholic Church?

Full communion with the Catholic Church is the state of being completely united with the Church in its faith, sacramental life, and ecclesiastical governance (submission to the Pope and local bishops in communion with the Pope). Note, this doesn't mean we don't struggle with any of the teachings; but when we struggle, we do so from within the Church trusting that the faith handed down from the Apostles is a trustworthy expression of God's revelation.

Here are some Key Elements of what constitutes Full Communion with the Catholic Church. A person in full communion:

- has received the sacraments of initiation—Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist.
- is in full agreement with the core dogmas, teachings, and moral doctrine of the Catholic Church.
- submits to the pastoral authority of the Pope and the local bishop, and active participation in the sacramental life of a parish (including attending Sunday Mass and observing Church precepts).

So, what are the Precepts of the Catholic Church (CCC 2041-2043)?

1. Attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation

A faithful Catholic must participate in Mass every Sunday and on designated holy days of obligation, and rest from unnecessary servile work that gets in the way of worship.

2. Confess Your Sins at Least Once a Year

A faithful Catholic must confess any mortal (grave) sins through the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation at least once annually.

3. Receive the Eucharist at Least Once During the Easter Season

A faithful Catholic must receive Holy Communion at least once a year, traditionally during the Easter season (from Easter Sunday or the Easter Vigil to Pentecost Sunday).

4. Observe Days of Fasting and Abstinence

A faithful Catholic must follow the Church's rules for penance, which include fasting (eating at most one full meal and two smaller ones) on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, and abstaining from meat on Fridays during Lent (and other designated days depending on local church guidelines – see my previous treatise on “Fast and Abstinence”, SSPP Bulletin dated October 11, 2026).

5. Provide for the Material Needs of the Church

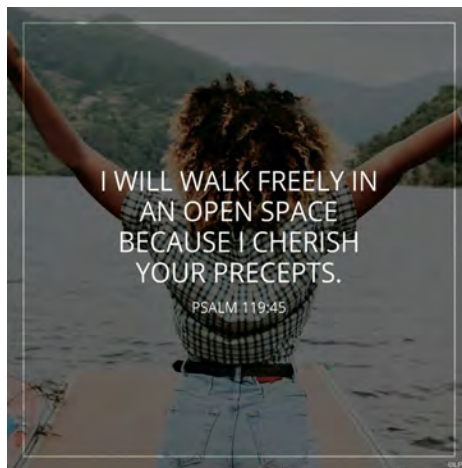

A faithful Catholic has a duty to help support the financial and material needs of his or her parish and the broader Church according to his or her personal ability.

So, there you have it. The minimum requirements to be in full communion with the Catholic Church, the precepts.

Of course, we are not called to be minimalists! Recall these words from St. Paul in his second letter to the Corinthians (2 Cor 9:6):

“Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully.”

Let us, then, be among the latter!

Bendición de Familias

El último domingo de diciembre por lo general se celebra la Sagrada Familia de Nazareth. Cada Año, como preparación a la Navidad, la Iglesia nos da la posibilidad de recibir la bendición de las familias. No se trata de bendecir la estructura, la casa como tal, sino, orar y pedir la bendición sobre las personas que habitan en el hogar.

Por eso, este año, quiero brindar la oportunidad para aquellas familias que quieran recibir su bendición en su hogar, desde el 1ro. de diciembre, hasta el domingo de la Sagrada Familia (27 de diciembre).

Para ello, deben registrarse con su dirección a partir del domingo 1ro. de noviembre, después de la Misa. Iré a los hogares, oraré con ellos, impartiré la bendición y juntos nos prepararemos a la celebración de la Navidad.

La idea es que una familia se registre y pueda invitar y reunir a los demás miembros de ella, para orar juntos. Así también damos la posibilidad a otras familias que puedan tener espacio y evitamos repetir.

Dios les bendiga.
