From the Desk of Fr. Keith Romke

Dearest Brothers and Sisters,

Next Saturday and Sunday after Mass, we will be hosting our parish Ministry Fair, and I want to encourage everyone to take some time to stop, look around, and prayerfully consider how God might be calling you to become more involved in the life of our parish.

One of the beautiful things about our parish ministries is that they give us opportunities both to be fed and to pour out what we have been given. God works through these ministries to strengthen our faith, deepen our relationship with Him, and help us grow in holiness. But He also invites us to share those gifts with others. We aren't meant simply to receive God's goodness and keep it to ourselves. We are called to become channels of that goodness for the people around us.

I want to take this opportunity to thank all those who generously give their time and talents to our parish ministries. So much of what makes our parish vibrant and alive happens because people are willing to say yes to God and serve others. Your generosity makes a real difference, often in ways you may never fully see.

As you visit the Ministry Fair, I encourage you to do more than simply browse the tables. Take some time to pray and ask the Lord where He might be calling you. Is there a particular gift He has given you that you could share with others? Is there a need in our parish or community that moves your heart? Or perhaps there is something missing in your own life, something you can't quite put your finger on, that you have been longing for. Could it be that God wants to meet you there, not only by what you receive, but through what you give?

Sometimes we think we need to get our lives in order or have more time, energy, or confidence before we can serve. But so often, it is precisely through giving ourselves away that God begins to do something new in us. When we offer Him our time and talents with a generous heart, He has a way of feeding us in ways we never expected.

Jesus reminds us that it is more blessed to give than to receive. And Scripture assures us that God will not be outdone in generosity. Whatever we offer Him, He can take and multiply beyond anything we could have imagined. That doesn't mean we serve simply to get something in return; we serve because we love Him. But we can trust that when we give ourselves to God, He will never let that gift go to waste. He can bring forth fruit in our lives far beyond what we put in.

So please, take the opportunity next Sunday to explore the ministries of our parish. Ask questions, meet the people who serve, and most importantly, invite the Lord into the decision. You may discover that the place where God is calling you to give is also the place where He wants to nourish your heart and help you grow.

Let's continue building a parish where we are fed by God's grace, strengthened by one another, and generous in sharing what we have received.

God Bless you,

Fr. Romke

All Saints Day

By Deacon Howard Ganschow

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints Day. Normally a Holy Day of obligation, and technically it still is, as all Sundays are Holy Days of Obligation, because it falls on a Sunday it supersedes the normal Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Today we celebrate all of the saints in heaven, both canonized, and those known only to God. Canonized means that the Church on earth has declared them Saints. A Saint is a person who is recognized as having an exceptional degree of holiness, likeness, or closeness to God, and someone who we should always strive to be like.

The early celebration of All Saints Day was focused on the Martyrs, but has come to be about all of the Saints in Heaven. A martyr is someone who suffers persecution and death for their faith. Something we all like to think we would do, but pray that we never have to find out if we would stand up for what is true to our faith. Yet it is still something we should strive for.

Tomorrow is All Souls day, where we focus on the faithful departed who are in purgatory, waiting for their final cleansing before entering Heaven. We pray for the souls in Purgatory so that their souls will be released into Heaven.

The Hispanic community has a wonderful tradition often referred to as the Day of the Dead, where they remember and honor their loved ones who have died. The Community honors their ancestors and celebrates their lives.

This is in stark contrast to what the day before All Saints day has become: Secular Halloween. The word hallow is synonymous with saint. Halloween is really All Hallows Eve, All Saints Eve. We have turned what was a wonderful Catholic tradition into something frivolous. No longer about our ancestors but about ghosts and other silly things. We can learn many wonderful things from our ancestors, as long as we don't treat them as ghosts. Ancestors teach us and give us solace. Ghosts haunt us, not giving us support but scaring us. Some of that is on us, some of that is on them.

The relationships we build with our family will decide if we are remembered as an ancestor whose example leads and guides us or like a ghost who brings fear. We must work to build up our family members, not break them down. It's never too late to rebuild a shaky relationship, until it is. Will you be remembered as an ancestor to be honored and followed, or like a ghost to be avoided? You still have time to define your relationships, don't waste it.

St. Martin de Porres

"Everything. Even sweeping, scraping vegetables, weeding a garden and waiting on the sick could be a prayer, if it were offered to God."

St. Martin de Porres (December 9, 1579–November 3, 1639) came from the humblest of beginnings. Born in Peru, the illegitimate son of a Spanish knight and a previously enslaved African woman, he was subjected to bigotry his entire life. His early life was spent in deep poverty, after his father abandoned the family. At the age of 12 he was apprenticed to a barber-surgeon, where he would learn the medical skills which would gain him renown.

When he was 15, St. Martin wanted to join the Dominicans, however, the law in Peru prevented those of mixed-race from being members of religious orders. Undeterred, St. Martin volunteered to do menial work for the monastery and was allowed to live with the community. He worked in the laundry and kitchens, but soon was given the job of distributing money and food to the poor. In 1601, St. Martin was allowed to take his vows as a lay brother, despite the law. He was put in charge of the infirmary, the post he held until his death.

St. Martin was known for his great love of the Eucharist, and his intense prayer. Contemporary reports tell of levitation and light filling the room while he prayed, even bilocation where St. Martin was seen in distant countries despite never leaving Peru. St. Martin frequently went into the city to care for the poor and sick, especially the Africans who had been brought to Peru as enslaved people. He also founded an orphanage and school. He cared equally for all regardless of race or status. His kindness even extended to animals, caring for the dogs, cats and even mice and rats at the monastery.

St. Martin was beatified by Pope Gregory XVI on October 29, 1837, and canonized by Pope John XXIII on May 6, 1962, the first Black saint of the Americas.

St. Martin de Porres, pray for us!

MISA POR LOS FIELES DIFUNTOS

Lunes 02 de Noviembre, 5:00 pm.

Invitamos a todas las personas que deseen anotar los nombres de sus difuntos en el pizarrón que se preparará ese día, para que el Padre los incluya en la bendición y la oración. Les pedimos llegar 15 minutos antes para escribir los nombres de sus seres queridos.

Bendición de Familias

El último domingo de diciembre por lo general se celebra la Sagrada Familia de Nazareth. Cada Año, como preparación a la Navidad, la Iglesia nos da la posibilidad de recibir la bendición de las familias. No se trata de bendecir la estructura, la casa como tal, sino, orar y pedir la bendición sobre las personas que habitan en el hogar.

Por eso, este año, quiero brindar la oportunidad para aquellas familias que quieran recibir su bendición en su hogar, desde el 1ro. de diciembre, hasta el domingo de la Sagrada Familia (27 de diciembre).

Para ello, deben registrarse con su dirección a partir del domingo 1ro. de noviembre, después de la Misa. Iré a los hogares, oraré con ellos, impartiré la bendición y juntos nos prepararemos a la celebración de la Navidad.

La idea es que una familia se registre y pueda invitar y reunir a los demás miembros de ella, para orar juntos. Así también damos la posibilidad a otras familias que puedan tener espacio y evitamos repetir.

Dios les bendiga.
