NOVEMBER 7 & 8
AFTER ALL MASSES

410 N. First St, Cary, IL 60013 • 847-516-2636 • www.peterpaulchurchcary.org

From the Desk of Fr. Keith Romke

Dearest Brothers and Sisters,

As we begin the month of November, the Church invites us to turn our hearts toward the Holy Souls in Purgatory. It is a beautiful reminder of something that we can so easily forget: death does not bring an end to love. Those whom we have loved and lost are not simply people who belong to our past. Our love for them continues, and even more beautifully, we can still do something for them. One of the most comforting truths of our Catholic faith is that we remain united to one another in Christ, even beyond death. We call this the Communion of Saints. The Church on earth, the souls being purified in Purgatory, and the saints rejoicing in Heaven are not three separate families. We are one family, united in Jesus Christ. And because of that, our love can reach beyond the grave.

Think for a moment about someone you have loved who has died. Perhaps a parent or grandparent, a spouse, a sibling, a dear friend, or someone whose absence you still feel every day. When they were alive, there were countless ways you could show them your love. You could call them, visit them, embrace them, help them when they were struggling, or simply sit beside them. But after they died, perhaps you felt a certain helplessness. You wanted to do something for them, but there seemed to be nothing left that you could do. And yet, our faith tells us that there is something we can do. We can pray for them. And those prayers truly matter.

The Church teaches that those who die in God's grace and friendship, but who still need purification, are assured of Heaven. Purgatory is not a second chance to choose God, nor is it a place for souls who have been rejected by Him. It is the final purification of those who already belong to Him, preparing them to enter fully into the joy of His presence. And in His extraordinary goodness, God allows our prayers, sacrifices, and especially the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass to assist these souls in their purification. There is something incredibly moving about that. A person who once cared for us, sacrificed for us, prayed for us, and loved us may now be someone whom God is inviting us to help through our prayers. Perhaps your mother spent years praying for you. Perhaps your grandfather quietly offered sacrifices for your good. Perhaps someone helped you find your way back to God. What a beautiful gift it is to be able to return that love, even now!

And our prayers need not be limited to those we knew personally. There are souls who have no one left on earth who remembers them by name. No family members visiting their graves. No loved ones intentionally offering prayers for them. But they are not forgotten by God, and they need not be forgotten by us. What a remarkable act of charity it is to pray for someone we have never met, trusting that one day, in Heaven, we may discover just how much that simple act of love meant.

This November, I would like to invite each of us to make praying for the Holy Souls a daily habit. Think of three people who have died and whom you would especially like to remember. Write their names down and place them somewhere you will see them each day: beside your bed, on your bathroom mirror, or near a favorite place to pray. Every day throughout November, take just one minute to pray for them. You might offer an Our Father, a Hail Mary, or the traditional prayer of the Church: Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen. And if you are able, consider offering a Mass for a deceased loved one, attending an additional weekday Mass for the Holy Souls, or making a visit to a cemetery to pray for those buried there.

We often think of November as a month of remembering the dead. But I hope we can see it as something even more beautiful. November is a month in which we are invited not simply to remember those who have died, but to love them. To love them actively, generously, and in a way that truly helps them. One day, we too will stand before the Lord, longing to see Him face to face. What a consolation it will be to know that there are people still on earth who love us enough to pray for us. Until then, let us offer that same gift to others. Because in Christ, love does not end at the grave. And through prayer, even death cannot prevent us from loving one another.

God Bless you,
Fr. Romke

Marriage Ministry is for you!
Marriage Ministry aims to bring couples of our parish together to discover what God intends for this special vocation. Through monthly large-group sessions, small-group meetups, and home activities, you'll have the chance to create a community with others at all stages of marriage and grow together in your own relationship. Every couple is unique, and no pair is perfect, so let's share in the challenges and joys together to see what God has in store for each of us! Visit ssppcary.org for more information, upcoming dates, and to register for a small group!

Kickoff: November 14, 2026

Veterans Exiting Homelessness: Move-in Essentials
When a veteran leaves a shelter or transitional housing and moves to a permanent residence, they often do not have the basic items needed to set up their new home. Aside from the need for bedding and furniture they need the basic items we often take for granted. Please drop off items in the Parish Hall no later than November 15th. Recommended items can be found at ssppcary.org or on the table in the Narthex.

November 7 to 15, 2026

Outside the Wedding Feast

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Every time my husband tells me he needs to take our car in for an oil change, I groan: “Didn’t we just do that, like, six months ago?”

“Yeah,” he replies. “And like I told you six months ago, that’s roughly how often it needs to be done.”

If I didn’t have him, I would forget to change that oil until the engine came to a grinding halt in the middle of the interstate. It’s not that I’m incapable — I remember when we’re about to run out of butter, when we need to scrub out the kitchen sink so it doesn’t get nasty, when it’s time to schedule the kids’ annual doctor visits. I just don’t even think about the oil.

Why would I? My husband’s on top of it.

Our brains reflexively prioritize certain tasks, delegating the rest to the care of others we trust. I do it with the oil in the car. My husband does it with the groceries.

Sometimes — too often, in fact — we do it with our spiritual lives. We let it go. We don’t think about it. We trust. God’s got us. We’ll focus on that tomorrow.

It’s beautiful to have a relationship with God based in confidence, not in anxiety. But do we sometimes take this further than is healthy? In trusting that God loves us unconditionally, do we slip into the habit of de-prioritizing him? Do we linger too long outside the wedding feast, trimming our neglected lamps, forgetting that once the door closes, it also locks?

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini

I will go anywhere and do anything to communicate the love of jesus to those who do not know him or have forgotten him.

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini (July 15, 1850 – December 22, 1917) was born in the village of Sant'Angelo Lodigiano, Italy. Young Frances dreamed of being a missionary. She was educated to be a teacher by the Daughters of the Sacred Heart, but was refused entry to the order due to her poor health. Instead, she worked as a teacher and administrator at an orphanage in Cadogno, Italy, run by the Sisters of Providence. In September 1877, she made her vows there and took the religious habit, adding Xavier to her name in honor of St. Francis Xavier.

When the orphanage closed in 1880, she founded the Institute of the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. In 1887, St. Frances Xavier Cabrini sought an audience with Pope Leo XIII, to seek permission to go as missionaries to China. He famously told her to go “not to the East, but to the West,” and in 1889 she and six other sisters departed for New York, to serve Italian immigrants in the United States. However, anti-Italian and anti-immigrant attitudes were prevalent at the time, even in the Church. When she arrived, the archbishop advised her to go back to Italy. Undeterred, she provided education and healthcare within the Italian Catholic immigrant community.

At first, St. Frances Xavier Cabrini followed and served Italian immigrant populations, from New York to Chicago, and across the U.S., becoming a U.S. Citizen in 1909. Eventually she also founded institutions in Central and South America and Europe. Overall, she established 67 schools, hospitals, and orphanages. She was also known for her deep spirituality, often entering a trancelike state during the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

She died in her own Columbus Hospital in Chicago, Illinois. She was canonized in 1946 by Pope Pius XII, the first United States citizen to be canonized. She is the Universal Patron of Immigrants. St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, Pray for us!

Ministry Moment

Eucharistic Adoration

There is something beautiful about stepping away from the busyness of daily life to spend quiet time in the presence of Jesus. In Eucharistic Adoration, we come before our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament to pray, reflect, give thanks, and simply be with Him. It is an opportunity to deepen our relationship with Christ, bring Him our joys and burdens, and allow His presence to renew our hearts.

We offer Eucharistic Adoration every Tuesday and Thursday, and we invite you to make this sacred time a regular part of your spiritual life. Consider committing to one hour each week as an Adoration volunteer. Having dedicated adorers ensures that Jesus is never left alone and that this beautiful devotion remains available to our parish community.

Adoration Hours:

- Tuesdays: 8:30 AM–9:00 PM
- Thursdays: 8:30 AM–7:30 PM (with a break for the 6:00 PM Mass)

Whether you are new to Adoration or have been going for years, there's a place for you here! Give Jesus an hour of your week, and discover the peace and grace that come from being in His presence. To sign up for a regular Tuesday or Thursday hour, scan below, visit ssppcary.org, or call the church office.
