

Courtyard by Marriott Philadelphia South at The Navy Yard

Address: 1001 Intrepid Ave, Philadelphia, PA 19112

Statement: InLiquid's partnership with Courtyard by Marriott Philadelphia South at The Navy Yard brings contemporary work by local artists to the heart of Philadelphia's historic waterfront Navy Yard. Located in a sprawling industrial/corporate campus, The Courtyard Marriott is a destination for excited tourists, business-minded movers and shakers of various industries, and faithful sports fans traveling to see their teams play in the nearby stadium district.

Details:

- Format: 2 - 3 person exhibitions, each 4 months long.
- Open to wall-hanging work and small sculptures. Each exhibition consists of one 3D artist and one or two 2D artists.
- Layout: Exhibition space is broken up into 3 separate mini-spaces in the hotel's first floor: a shallow alcove and a hallway for 2-D work, and a deeper alcove for small sculptures.
 - The 2D spaces use a hanging rail system, so work must be framed or wired. The first space holds 1 piece between 28 and 44" high and 55 to 80" wide. The second space holds between 5-7 works that are between 24x24" and 48x48".
 - The 3D space is in a recessed alcove behind the front desk. The space holds between 5-8 pieces with a maximum height of 17" high and 16" deep. No screws, nails, or any other hardware may be added to the space.

Preference: Abstraction, Expressionism, Impressionism, Painting, Photography, Collage, Ceramic, Glass, Wood, Mixed Media, Color, Texture, Vibrance. No portraiture.

Courtyard by Marriott Philadelphia South at The Navy Yard Venue Photographs and Floorplans

