

Private Campground Buyout Options

We are pleased to offer exclusive access to our riverfront campground for private group bookings. This is a unique opportunity to secure a large, scenic outdoor space for your group, with complete privacy and flexibility to design your own experience.

Full Campground Buyout – from $2,500 per night

Enjoy exclusive use of the entire campground, including all available sites and direct access to the Fraser River. This option is ideal for groups looking for a private, self-managed outdoor experience with the freedom to bring in their own setup, vendors, and amenities.

Weekend Buyout Package – from $4,000

A preferred option for weekend gatherings, this package provides full campground access for the duration of your stay at a bundled rate. Perfect for extended group getaways, retreats, or casual celebrations, with ample space for trailers, tents, and shared gathering areas.

Campground Add-On for Fraser River Lodge Events – from $2,000

Enhance your existing Fraser River Lodge booking by adding exclusive access to the campground. This is a great option for weddings and larger events requiring additional space for guest accommodations, overflow parking, or expanded outdoor activities.

Additional Notes:

The campground is a natural, open-space setting designed for flexibility. While limited power and water campsites are available, there are currently no permanent restroom or sewer facilities. Clients are responsible for arranging any additional infrastructure required for their event, including portable washrooms, waste management, and event setup.
