Life Group Questions to consider:

1. What questions do you have about your life? How are you finding answers to those questions? Have you settled for any bad answers? Where have you seen God answer your questions in Christ?
2. Carefully read through Matthew 28:1-20. How does the resurrection of Jesus provide clarity to answer our questions? Why is His resurrection cause for celebration? Why did the chief priests try to hide the resurrection of Jesus? What is challenging about the changes brought by Jesus' resurrection? Why were some people doubtful when they saw Jesus? How does the fact that Jesus is alive create confidence?
3. How will you respond to this passage of Scripture? How will you respond to the resurrected Jesus? This week, find confidence in Jesus, and tell someone about the hope that is only found in Him!

Prayer:

- For each person in your group to know which next step God is calling them to. Pray that they will have clear opportunities to see God work in their lives.
- Pray that the group would surround the collective next steps and help encourage as they are taken.
- Pray for interactions with people far from God and for the group to be able to step into those conversations.
- Now go and take your next step. Go and BE the Church.
