Life Group Questions to consider:

1. We send on mission to multiply. God is calling us to remember the gospel, repeat the gospel, and respond to the gospel. What is the gospel? Why does the gospel challenge our selfishness? How is your response to the gospel influenced by self instead of truth?
2. Carefully read through Acts 24:1-27. Why did the Jews see Paul as a troublemaker? How did his gospel message disrupt their habits? Why did they respond to him with hostility and false accusations? How does Paul respond? Why doesn't he attack them back? What truth does he communicate to clarify the situation? Why is he so confident in the gospel? Why does Paul spend time talking with Felix and Drusilla? Why is the gospel message frightening when speaking of righteousness, self-control, and judgment? How do Felix and Drusilla respond?
3. How will you respond to this passage of Scripture? How are you responding to the gospel? Have you trusted Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior? Are you actively making disciples of Jesus? Who will hear the gospel message from you this week?

Prayer:

- For each person in your group to know which next step God is calling them to. Pray that they will have clear opportunities to see God work in their lives.
- Pray that the group would surround the collective next steps and help encourage as they are taken.
- Pray for interactions with people far from God and for the group to be able to step into those conversations.
