Life Group Questions to consider:

1. We send on mission to multiply. God's story intersects with your story, and He calls for your life story to point toward Jesus. Why is it so hard to shift our life story focus away from ourselves? What specific things compete for your attention and tempt you to make your life story all about you?
2. Carefully read through Acts 26:1-32. Why is Paul happy to share his story? Why does he begin with his religion and background when talking with Agrippa? How does the resurrection of Jesus provide a pivot point in his story? Why does Paul emphasize his resistance to Jesus prior to his conversion? What do you notice about how God chooses to correct Paul? What is significant about God rescuing Paul and sending Paul?
3. What are "deeds appropriate to repentance"? How does this passage show Paul being obedient to God's purpose for him? Why is Agrippa not fully persuaded to become a Christian? How will you respond to this passage of Scripture? What story does your life tell? How is God calling you to obey? This week, who will see and hear your story pointing them toward Jesus?

Prayer:

- For each person in your group to know which next step God is calling them to. Pray that they will have clear opportunities to see God work in their lives.
- Pray that the group would surround the collective next steps and help encourage as they are taken.
- Pray for interactions with people far from God and for the group to be able to step into those conversations.
