Title: The War Between the States as I Saw It

Subject: The Civil War. The author's personal account, c. 1901. The author was a resident of Franklin County and the book includes references and personal histories of many citizens of Franklin County and adjoining counties of Northeast Texas).

Author: Sparks, A.W.

Donor: FCHA made this photocopy of original book; this is a bound manuscript.

Title: Forty-Seven Years (original pre-publication manuscript – pages prepared for publication BUT book was never published; pages bound into 3 volumes; over 800 pages with additional index)

Subject: History of Anglo Settlement into Northeast Texas from ca. 1800-1820.

Author: Steely, Skipper

Donor: B.F. Hicks. Hicks had given $7,000.00 to Steely to support research efforts to write this book and to obtain publication. Steely went to Henington Publishing Co. in 1988; the text was set for press but funds were lacking to publish a volume of this size. Steely never proceeded with publication. The book is available in digital format through Steely and Steely placed the complete manuscript at Texas A&M – Commerce; and gave a secondary copy to Hicks – which was had been appended at the end of pages to add material which was not printed on the copy but which does appear in the complete manuscript held in the TAMU – Commerce University library.
