EXPERIENCE AND EXPERTISE

QDRO Group, LLC – Medina, OH

President and Staff Attorney for QDRO Group, a company specializing in the division of retirement assets in divorce. The company works specifically in five areas:

- 1) Preparing actuarial present values for domestic relations cases.

- 3) Drafting Qualified Domestic Relations Orders for attorneys across the country.
- 4) Supporting litigation on dividing retirement benefits in divorce.
- 5) Writing in the field of present values and QDROs.

As a part of my role with QDRO Group, I prepare draft Qualified Domestic Relations Orders (“QDROs”) for domestic relations attorneys; prepare separation agreement language to offer to domestic relations attorneys, including for executive compensation plans; and advise domestic relations attorneys on the proper course of action in dividing a retirement benefit. I further draft consent orders and motions to modify final divorce decrees to correct the language dividing retirement benefits.
