ABOUT NEIFB

At the Northeast Iowa Food Bank, we are guided by the belief that hunger is unacceptable, that everyone deserves access to nutritious food, that food sustains life and health, and that we are called to serve without judgment. In short, We Champion People.

Our story began in 1981, during the Farm Crisis, when local community members saw a growing need and took action. With permission to use a room in the closed Francis Grout School, the Cedar Valley Food Pantry was established, serving 1,200 households in its first eight months. In 1986, we joined the National Second Harvest network, now known as Feeding America.

What started as a small pantry has grown into a full-scale food bank, distributing millions of pounds of food each year to more than 125 partner agencies across 16 counties. Our eight programs - Agency Distribution, Backpack, Cedar Valley Food Pantry, Kids Café, Mobile Food Pantry, School Market, Senior Nutrition, and Summer Feeding - continue to evolve to meet the needs of our community members.

From our distribution center in Waterloo, we reach 5,800 individuals every week through a network of pantries, soup kitchens, schools, churches, and nonprofit organizations. In 2024 alone, we provided more than 8.6 million meals throughout northeast Iowa.

We are proud members of Feeding America, the nation's largest hunger-relief organization, and the Iowa Food Bank Association, which unites the six Feeding America food banks in our state.

Thank you for helping us achieve our bold aspiration: Every Meal. Every Day. Everyone.

CEDAR VALLEY FOOD PANTRY

Visiting the Cedar Valley Food Pantry (CVFP) helps households stretch their budgets, allowing them to use those savings on other essential needs that might otherwise be out of reach. Many in our community face difficult decisions when their income doesn't go as far as they need, asking tough questions like, "What is more important this month, food for my two kids, or paying the water bill?" These are the kinds of choices some families are forced to make every month. By coming to the Cedar Valley Food Pantry, we hope to ease that burden by helping cover a portion of their weekly food needs. The CVFP is open Monday through Friday and provides food and grocery items to those in need.

VOLUNTEER RESPONSIBILITIES:

Pantry volunteers help stock shelves, bring food from the warehouse, answer clients' questions, and assist clients with carrying groceries. This opportunity also allows volunteers to interact directly with the people we serve.

We believe in putting your talents to good use and want to find the right fit for you. Reach out, share your skills, and let's work together to make a difference.

TRUCKS | DRIVERS & RIDERS

The Northeast Iowa Food Bank provides nutritious food to individuals and nonprofit organizations across 16 counties in northeast Iowa. With the help of volunteer drivers, we transport food to and from our distribution center in Waterloo. Each day, drivers run routes that include food rescue, picking up donated food and produce from local stores, elderly nutrition, delivering boxes and bags to senior centers, and the Backpack Program, delivering bags to schools for children facing food insecurity. Local and out-of-town routes are available, and volunteers are welcome to bring a friend to ride along.

- Capable of getting in and out of a box truck

FARMERS' MARKET RESCUE (SEASONAL)

Farmers Market produce rescue is simple and rewarding. Volunteers kindly ask produce vendors if they have extra items to donate to the Food Bank. The donated produce is weighed, and a donation receipt is provided to the vendor. The produce is then brought back to the Food Bank and placed in our large cooler. It is distributed to clients the next day the Cedar Valley Food Pantry is open.

Training for this process will be provided before volunteering.

- Ability to lift 25+ lbs.
- Capable of getting in and out of a box truck
- Clean driving record (if operating vehicle)

VOLUNTEERING 101

HOW TO GET STARTED: To begin your journey as a volunteer, you will need to navigate to our online signup through our website. To access our signup, you will need to go to the Northeastern Iowa Food Bank's website neifb.org. From there you will go to "Get Involved" and there will be a link titled "Volunteer Signup" to take you to our Volunteer Signup page. Then create an account on the Northeast Iowa Food Bank's volunteer scheduling website, VolunteerHub. From there, you can see and register for any of the volunteer opportunities that interest you.

SCHEDULING: Once you have successfully created a VolunteerHub account, you may begin signing up for volunteer opportunities. After signing into your account, you can view all the upcoming volunteer opportunities and begin filling openings that fit your schedule and interests. We recommend trying out different volunteer experiences to find your niche within our organization. If you don't have access to a computer, please write down your name, hours, and volunteer location and a Volunteer Coordinator will schedule you.

VOLUNTEER GROUP/SCHEDULING GUIDELINES: VolunteerHub allows volunteers to sign up groups in the afternoons, evenings, and Saturdays. The site will not allow you to register your group if there is not room in the group or the number of participants you are trying to sign up is more than 12-15 people, depending on the event. In this case, reach out to the Volunteer Outreach Coordinator to schedule your group. Groups should be scheduled at least a week in advance to allow us to plan for staffing. For youth groups ages 8-15 we require one adult chaperone per 3 children, and one adult present for every 6 youth, ages 16 and 17. Youth under 16 are not permitted to volunteer without an adult.

SIGNING IN/OUT: When you arrive for your shift, you will need to sign in before going to your designated area. There is a clock-in station located in the Food Bank office. You will type in your last name to sign-in and select your assignment for that day. You must sign-in on the tablet every time you volunteer unless the tablet is out of order. If the tablet is out of order you may sign-in on the clipboard forms, however, please let someone in the office know that it is not working so we can fix it. If you happen to forget to clock in or out, please let the Volunteer Coordinator know and they will adjust the schedule accordingly.

CANCELLATIONS: If you are unable to make your shift, please let us know by 3:00pm the day before your shift. We understand that there are always emergencies that may be subject to this rule. If you are feeling sick, please stay home! We have contact with a lot of clients and food, and so we don't want to spread germs. Continuous no-shows or cancellations may require the volunteer department to reevaluate your work with our organization. Groups must cancel at least 48 hours in advance.

CODE OF CONDUCT

GENERAL CONDUCT

There will be zero tolerance for inappropriate behavior while at the Food Bank. This includes, but is not limited to: profanity/name calling, vandalism, and physical contact with other volunteers/staff. Reporting to the Food Bank under the influence of alcohol or illegal substances will be reason for immediate dismissal. Any disruptive or rowdy behaviors demonstrated by volunteers, which results in the damage of product, will be grounds for immediate dismissal of the individual. This will be dealt with on a case by case basis, and will be handled by the staff member overseeing the volunteer group or individual.

GRIEVANCE POLICY & PROCEDURE

The Northeast Iowa Food Bank recognizes that volunteers have the right to raise grievances about any matter related to their volunteering (this could be in relation to another volunteer, a member of the paid staff, or the manner in which they are being treated by the food bank).

If a volunteer has a complaint against a member of staff, another volunteer, or the organization in general, they should first discuss this with their manager. This volunteer may be accompanied by a colleague at this meeting. If the manager is the person who the complaint is against, then the matter should be referred to another senior person from the Executive Team. If the matter is not resolved at the initial meeting, the complaint should be made in writing to the Executive Committee. This will require a special meeting of the committee to be held within fourteen days and treated in a confidential manner.

VOLUNTEER HOUR DOCUMENTATION:

If you need documentation of the hours you are completing with NEIFB, please let the Volunteer Coordinator know when you begin. If there are documents that a staff member needs to track hours on, please present those upfront, and remember to get them signed at completion of the volunteer shift. We are willing to print off completed hours, however please let the volunteer coordinator know at the beginning of your final shift to ensure they have time to complete this. We are willing to work with you to complete hours, but we would appreciate plenty of notice to ensure you get the most out of your experience.

MEANS FOR DISMISSAL:

The dismissal of a volunteer is a serious consideration. Before a volunteer may be dismissed, every attempt will be taken with the parties involved to resolve the action. Dismissal of a volunteer may take place if the volunteer is unreliable, demonstrates inappropriate behavior, or fails to adhere to policies of the NEIFB Volunteer Handbook.

BREAKS

In the case that volunteers are here for an all-day shift, they are allowed to take breaks throughout the day. Volunteers are allowed a morning, lunch, and afternoon break. Lunch break is from 12:00-12:30pm and will not be counted toward volunteer hours unless previous arrangements have been made.

EXPECTATIONS

CELL PHONES

Cell phone usage is not permitted by community service workers or volunteers in any part of the Food Bank. Silence phones when you arrive at the Food Bank and only use them during break time. The office phone is for staff and emergency use only.

OTHER

Interpretation and enforcement of these rules is at the discretion of the Northeast Iowa Food Bank. All decisions are final. Failure to comply with these rules may result in dismissal from the Community Services or Volunteer Program. If you have a medical issue or disability that may interfere with your service at the Food Bank, please inform us immediately.

TOBACCO USAGE

Smoking/vaping/tobacco use is not allowed anywhere on Food Bank property. Due to food safety regulations, tobacco of any kind must be stored in the break room or in your vehicle.

PARKING/PERSONAL BELONGINGS

DRESS CODE

Appropriate clothing must be worn when reporting to the Food Bank. You are representatives of the Food Bank while you are here. INDIVIDUALS MUST WEAR CLOSED-TOE SHOES. Sandals/flip flops, and clothing with offensive language are not permitted. Workers dressed inappropriately will be asked to leave until they meet these guidelines. Food Bank staff will make final decisions on this matter.

Due to AIB serve safe rules, volunteers may be asked to remove their hats, watches, bracelets, rings or other jewelry depending on the project. Refusal to comply will result in the volunteer being unable to participate in the project until these items are removed.

USE OF FOOD/FOOD ASSISTANCE

All food within the Food Bank is for the use of nonprofit agencies and the clients of the Cedar Valley Food Pantry only. Using food while volunteering from any area of the Food Bank will be grounds for dismissal and could be grounds for prosecution as theft. Volunteers and community service workers may not receive food assistance from the Cedar Valley Food Pantry while they serve in any area of the Food Bank as a volunteer. They may, however, receive assistance from the pantry after their volunteer shift.

Due to food safety regulations, food/drink (including water) is only allowed in the designated break room. Chewing gum is not permitted in the facility.
