We are looking for a individual for the Indigenous Transfer Coordinator position who will play a pivotal role in managing and facilitating the transfer of Indigenous individuals into and out of the Section 81 Healing Lodges.

Specific responsibilities of the position include:

- To oversee and manage the transfer process for individuals entering and exiting the Healing Lodge.
- Advocate for and integrate Indigenous cultural practices into the transfer process.
- Build and maintain positive relationships with Indigenous communities.

Our ideal candidate would have the following qualifications:

- In-depth experience and working knowledge of Indigenous communities, cultures, healing and language.
- Deep understanding of Indigenous culture and traditions and values as it may relate to justice and healing.
- Bachelor's degree in social work, Indigenous Studies, Criminology or a related field preferably with Indigenous populations.
- Knowledge of related legislation and practices, including Section 81 of the Corrections and Conditional Release Act.
- Must be dependable and build working relationships with the residents.
- Strong communication skills with the ability to collaborate with various stakeholders, including Federal and Provincial Corrections, community organizations and Indigenous leaders.
- Ability to work under pressure, manage multiple tasks and meet deadlines.
- Valid Alberta driver's license and willing to travel as required for community outreach.
- Ability to work as a team and also work alone, maintain confidentiality, excellent written and verbal communication skills, professionalism and dress appropriately for the position.
- Good working knowledge of computers and information technology.
- Up to date criminal record check, child intervention check and must clear Correctional Services Canada Enhanced Reliability security check to remain employed.
- Must have a reliable vehicle, Alberta driver's license and liability insurance to use your vehicle as part of your employment.

Starting Salary Range $60,000.00 - $65,000.00 annual
