

Digital/BIM Initiative of the Year

Application Form

This award recognises an organisation or team that has delivered an exceptional digital or Building Information Modelling (BIM) initiative. It celebrates innovative use of technology to enhance collaboration, efficiency, and accuracy in construction and design projects, setting new benchmarks for digital excellence in the industry.

Please note your application should be no more than 10 pages (5 double sided sheets) and a maximum of 2500 words. Applications should be emailed to info@irishbuildinganddesignawards.com Or uploaded to the following link - Digital/BIM Initiative of the Year.

Summary	In no more than 250 words summarise why your company / initiative deserves to win this award.
Importance of Initiative	Explain the significance of this initiative for the project, organisation, and wider industry.
Description & Implementation	Describe the objectives of the initiative and how it works. Describe how the initiative was integrated into existing processes, who was involved and how you collaborated with teams/ stakeholders.
Project Life Cycle	Describe the life-cycle of the Digital/BIM project and how it added values with particular focus on your company's role.
Innovation & Originality	What's new about this initiative compared to existing methods/tools? How will this initiative evolve or continue delivering value?
Benefits	Detail the project benefits (short, medium and long), including sustainability gains the initiative could bring.
Supporting Statements & Testimonials	List and explain the steps that your company follows to measure customer satisfaction. Please provide information of two client testimonials & references.

Essential tips for a successful entry

- A successful application must address all the points above.
- Marks will be allocated only on the evidence you provide.
- Don't underestimate the power of presentation! You can use bullet points, charts, photographs, and client feedback in your submission. The more impressive your application appears and the stronger your evidence, the more it will support your case with the judges.
- Please make sure you have included your Client References where applicable.
- Make sure to include information on your exceptional successes during the year such as business systems, innovations or techniques that have reaped significant benefits.
- Remember your document should be no more than 2500 words.
- DO NOT include company marketing brochures in your entry.
- We reserve the right to quality check applications and may contact to ask for additional information if necessary.