Elpha Secure and SentinelOne Partner to Drive Cyber Resilience and Protection for Customers

NEW YORK (October 2, 2025) – Elpha Secure, the first fully integrated cyber insurance and security platform, and SentinelOne®, the AI-native security leader, today announced their partnership to better defend small and midsize businesses (SMBs) from cyber risk.

Through this partnership, SMBs will have access to industry-leading cyber solutions that fully integrate Elpha's pre-eminent insurance product with SentinelOne's advanced security platform.

"We are excited to partner with SentinelOne to deliver a comprehensive solution to solve for both the cybersecurity and insurance needs of our customers," said Elpha Secure CEO Gordon Malin. "Together, we are making best-in-class cyber hygiene easy and accessible for SMBs to keep their systems secured in today's digital age."

"At SentinelOne, we're committed to empowering partners to deliver the strongest possible defense to their customers," said Tracy Ryan, AVP, Global MSP/MSSP, SentinelOne. "This partnership with Elpha Secure brings a powerful new option to the ecosystem, uniting AI-powered cybersecurity with integrated insurance. It not only strengthens SMB resilience against evolving threats, but also creates new opportunities for partners to deliver differentiated value in a simple, cost-effective way."

A robust cybersecurity defense is no longer an option but instead a necessity for businesses to survive. Together, Elpha and SentinelOne are bridging that gap for SMBs to safeguard themselves against today's sophisticated cyberattacks.

This partnership delivers several key benefits to customers:

- Access to Industry-Leading Protection: For the first time, SMBs can access a best-in-class cybersecurity defense product that combines the market-leading end detection response solution with full coverage cyber insurance.
- Seamless Installation Support and Guidance: Elpha assists policyholders in easily deploying SentinelOne across their organization with Elpha's Security Operations Center managing their security posture using real-time threat monitoring and mitigation.
- Single, Cost-Effective Transaction: It is an all-in-one solution that's straightforward to implement and is available now.

This joint effort will strengthen protection for customers and drive proactive risk mitigation. As the cyber threat landscape evolves, Elpha and SentinelOne remain committed to helping all businesses remain resilient.
